2,829 Dead Or Missing

Chile Subjected To More Quakes

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—No respite appeared in sight today for southern Chile, wrecked by five days of continuing earthquakes, tidal waves, avalanches and volcanic eruptions.

The official death toll so far was 2,829 dead or missing, 2 million—a fourth of the nation's population—homeless and 300 million dollars property damage. And the count was mounting steadily.

The U.S. Air Force joined in flying relief through the smoke billowing from volcanoes.

With countless communities still cut off and the upheavals of nature continuing, officials could not even predict the final toll. Low-lying clouds and rain hampered aerial rescue operations. Smoke and ash from volcanoes hung over much of the southern part of the mountainous land.

The Interior Ministry listed the known dead at 1,706 and 1,123 missing and presumed dead.

The face of the country itself was altered by the disturbances which began Saturday. Three new earth tremors were reported Wednesday. Tidal waves up to 15 feet high still pounded along 750 miles of the southern coast. Many islands along the coast could not be reached for word of their inhabitants.

Crime Group May Inquire Into Hancock

CHARLESTON — The State Crime Commission Wednesday heard reports on evidence of crime in Wood, Marion, Grant, Mineral, Tucker, Harrison, Ohio and Hancock Counties.

Atty. Dean Nichols, the commission's general counsel, said that he had sent 250 letters asking for evidence of crime to city and county officials throughout the state.

These included prosecutors, judges of circuit and criminal courts, State Police, sheriffs, police chiefs, mayors and editors.

Nichols told the commission he had received only 19 replies from county officials and 7 from city officials. There were 13 negative replies and 6 positive replies from the counties and 6 negative replies and one positive reply from the city officials.

Nichols said the replies were coming in slowly and he was disappointed with the response so far.

The commission went into executive session, from which newsmen were barred, to consider a list of the first witnesses to be summoned.

Under a resolution passed by the last legislature, newsmen are liable for contempt if they identify witnesses against their wishes. The resolution provided that witnesses may testify in secret if they desire.

Wellsville Murderer's Sentence Commuted

Joseph A. Howell, 45, of Wellsville has received a commutation of his life sentence for a holdup murder from Gov. Michael DiSalle on the recommendation of the Ohio Pardon and Parole Commission after serving about 21 years in the State Penitentiary.

Sentenced in June 1939 as an accomplice in the slaying of George Culp, 61, street car conductor at Wellsville Jan. 2, 1937, in the robbery with John L. Welsh, he had been convicted by three judges of first degree murder with recommendation for mercy. The commutation reduced the charge to second degree murder and Howell is now eligible for parole.

Neither Columbiana County Common Pleas Court nor Prosecutor G. William Brokaw opposed the commutation. Howell and Welsh were not apprehended for two years and they waived a jury trial. Welsh remains in prison as testimony shows he fired the gun and Howell was unarmed.

Quemoy Isles Pounded Heavily By Red Shells

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Communists Wednesday subjected the Quemoy Islands to the heaviest shelling in three months—172 rounds. It was the roughest day for the Nationalist-held offshore islands since Jan. 25, when 242 rounds were fired.

Peiping radio claimed a U.S. warship intruded into Communist China's territorial waters Wednesday in the Tungyin area of Fukien province opposite Formosa.

Ike Pledges Cooperation In Inquiries

Gives Full Approval Of Congress Probes On Summit Failure

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today pledged full cooperation with congressional inquiries into the summit conference collapse.

The President talked with the leaders of both parties at a White House breakfast. After the session Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas quoted Eisenhower as saying the planned investigations at the Capitol have his full approval.

Eisenhower called in the Democratic and Republican chiefs for a briefing on the background of the Paris summit collapse. The congressional leaders provided no immediate detail but presumably the general outline was much the same as the President's radio-television report to the nation.

Johnson's report that Eisenhower pledged full cooperation with congressional inquiry committees was echoed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the GOP leader.

Dirksen added that the President appreciated the bipartisan backing he has received and made "a plea for unanimity of spirit and feeling."

Some of the other legislators who attended, who asked not to be quoted by name, described the discussion as friendly and general.

Johnson called the breakfast session a very enjoyable meeting. He said those present were invited to ask questions, and did so.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, outlined for the President the plans for his group's inquiry, which will start Friday. Johnson also referred to investigations planned by other congressional committees.

"We are all in this together, and we are treating mistakes as errors," Johnson said.

"Our big objective is to bring about American solidarity."

Eisenhower invited 10 senators and 13 House members to a breakfast of oatmeal, scrambled eggs, ham and bacon.

In addition to Johnson, Dirksen, and Fulbright, those invited were: Sens. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.); Styles Bridges (R-NH); Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.); Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.); Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.); Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Calif.); and Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.).

Probe Opens In Saratoga, Ship Collision

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A Navy Board of Inquiry had before it today the question of why the mighty aircraft carrier Saratoga and a West German ore ship collided in clear weather off the Virginia coast early Wednesday.

There were no injuries or casualties among the 35-man crew of the merchantman, the Bernd Leonhardt, or the 2,400 men and 160 officers on the Saratoga. The left sides of both vessels were damaged extensively.

The 60,000-ton carrier, one of the world's largest, was due to enter the Norfolk Navy shipyard today for repairs which a survey team estimated would take two weeks. The survey team declined to give a dollar estimate of damage.

Backers Face House Battle On School Aid

GOP And Southern Democrats Expected To Furnish Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sponsors of a 975 million dollar school construction bill face a battle in the House today from both friends and foes of federal aid to public schools.

The determined opponents, mainly Republicans and Southern Democrats, are expected to join forces in an attempt to throttle the bill.

The ardent supporters could achieve the same result by building it up until it is practically certain to draw a presidential veto.

Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-N.J.), author of the bill, told the House frankly in the opening of debate Wednesday that it had been carefully tailored to attract the maximum number of votes and the least risk of a veto.

The threat of a veto was raised anew, however, by Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. Following a White House conference Flemming released a letter to Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (R-Pa.) hinting strongly at a veto unless the bill is altered.

He said the administration insisted on making states match all federal funds and allocating a proportionately greater share of the money to poorer states. The Thompson bill would authorize outright grants the first year and require matching funds for the final two years of the three-year program. Allocations to states are based on the number of school age children, regardless of the needs of individual states.

City Boy, 14, Injured When Bike Hits Truck

A 14-year-old boy suffered minor injuries Wednesday night at 9:20 when his bicycle struck a parked truck at Pleasant Alley and Walnut St., police said.

Paul Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards, 417 Sugar St., was treated at City Hospital for bruises and abrasions of the scalp.

Police said they received a telephone report that a boy had been injured on Walnut St. Patrolmen K. H. Mooney and R. E. Higgins, who investigated, said they found young Richards lying on Walnut St. alongside his bicycle. Witnesses said the bicycle collided with a parked truck, officers said. The boy was taken to the hospital in a cruiser.

'Made Us Comfortable'

Pilot Says MIGs Forced Him Down

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—

Six Soviet MIG jets fired machine gun bursts to force a U.S. Air Force transport plane to land in East Germany last Friday. Then the Russians went out of their way to make the nine Americans aboard comfortable.

"The Russians helped us out in any way they could for our comfort," the pilot of the C47, Capt. James Lundy of Findlay, Ohio, told a news conference today.

Russian interrogators only casually mentioned the U2 spy plane, the incident that has plunged U.S.-Soviet relations to a new low. Lundy said. At no time did the Russians try to connect the U2 incident with the C47, he added.

Lundy, grounded by the Air Force after his return, blamed the false wind information for straying into East Germany.

"There was no indication that we were off course until the MIGs appeared," Lundy said. "There was no doubt in my mind but that they wanted us to land."

No Sign He'd Be Called

Rockefeller Offers Self As Reserve GOP Aspirant

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was offering himself as a reserve candidate for the Republican nomination for president today but there was no discernible sign he would be called to active duty.

Rockefeller said Wednesday he would accept a draft to run as GOP candidate for president, a development possible only if the party rejects Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But Rockefeller agreed with the almost unanimous view that Nixon's nomination "obviously is to be expected."

Nixon remains the party's only declared candidate. He has more than enough votes, by unofficial count, to win nomination on the first ballot.

Nixon also has the backing of President Eisenhower.

The machine gun fire did not hit the C47.

The other eight Americans reported food and treatment good. Put up at Soviet headquarters, the men played volleyball with the Russians. The one woman passenger was visited by a Soviet officer's wife.

The C47 and its crew of six and three passengers reached Wiesbaden Wednesday night after the Russians allowed the plane to take off from the muddy field where it landed.

The battered old Air Force C47 with eight men and a woman aboard strayed 22 miles into East Germany while on a flight from Copenhagen to Hamburg. The Soviets released the plane and the nine Americans Tuesday but bad weather prevented their flying to the West until Wednesday night.

The Air Force, in grounding the 41-year-old pilot for investigation, said he "clearly had violated pertinent flying directions."

Soviet Aide At U.N. Raps Ike's Speech

Gromyko Asserts It Only Aggravated The Summit Situation

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko asserted today that President Eisenhower's speech on the summit conference collapse "only aggravates the situation."

The Soviet foreign minister gave his reaction to newsmen as he arrived to deliver a major speech before the U.N. Security Council on the U2 spy plane case.

Gromyko said: "The statement of the President is not satisfactory. It does not change the situation. I would say in reality that it only aggravates the situation because it is the confirmation of the dangerous policy of the United States in regard to the Soviet Union."

Minutes later Gromyko plunged into his council speech pressing for a condemnation of the United States for the May 1 flight over Soviet territory. The council was expected to reject the Soviet demand later in the day.

With a vote of 7-2 or 8-2 against the resolution in prospect, there was speculation the Soviets might withdraw it before a ballot.

Only Poland and the Soviet Union said they would vote for the resolution. Ceylon was planning to abstain, and Tunisia was expected either to abstain or vote against it. The seven other council members had said they would vote "no."

Morning and afternoon council sessions were scheduled.

Gromyko promised a one-hour speech summing up the Kremlin contention that the American U2 plane downed deep in Soviet territory and similar American spy flights constituted aggression and should be condemned. Lodge planned a 15-minute reply.

The Soviet foreign minister was expected to cite President Eisenhower's statement in his radio-TV speech Wednesday night that the spy flights had been stopped because "their usefulness was impaired."

Diplomats at the U.N. assumed Gromyko would argue that Eisenhower thus had shown the United States no longer respects the international law concept of national sovereignty over the air space above a nation's territory.

Proclaims Sainthood

ROME (AP)—Pope John XXIII today proclaimed the sainthood of Gregorio Cardinal Barbarigo, 17th Century Italian bishop of Bergamo and Padua noted for his reorganization of ecclesiastical studies and seminaries.

Makes Plea To Forget Summit Fall

Says Path Of Reason And Common Sense Still Open To Them

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States bombarded the Soviet Union today with a broadcast appeal from President Eisenhower to forget the failure of the Paris summit conference and join in "business like dealings" for East-West peace.

"The path of reason and common sense is still open if the Soviets will but use it," Eisenhower

Reds Jam Broadcasts Of President's Speech

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House said today "it is obvious the Russian leaders did not have the courage to let the Russian people hear the President's speech."

James C. Hagerty, press secretary, made that statement in reporting all-out Soviet jamming of broadcasts of the address in which President Eisenhower reported on the failure of the Paris summit conference. Hagerty had made an advance appeal to the Soviet leaders to let their people hear the U.S. account.

declared Wednesday night in a radio-television broadcast from the White House.

Translations of the speech, carried throughout the world by the Voice of America, were being beamed to the Soviet Union today in 22 separate broadcasts in seven languages spoken in that area.

Eisenhower asserted his intention to seek improved relations with the Soviet Union "despite our recent disappointment" and said specifically that the United States will continue to take part in conferences at Geneva on disarmament and on prohibition of nuclear weapons tests.

At the same time he made emphatically clear that—in spite of cancellation of U2 spy flights—he intends to continue gathering intelligence information about the Soviet Union's military developments by all practical means.

Obviously referring to spy-in-the-sky satellites, he said "new techniques, other than aircraft, are constantly being developed" to do this.

But Eisenhower stressed that he would much prefer that the United Nations undertake the task of keeping watch on the military efforts of all the great powers.

He reaffirmed his intention to propose a new open skies plan to the U.N., and announced that the United States would supply "part of the aircraft and equipment required." Press Officer James C. Hagerty said this offer would include the high-flying U2 jet planes used by the United States in aerial espionage of the Soviet Union for the past four years.

At this point in his speech Eisenhower dramatically turned away from his prepared text, as it was released in advance, and displayed a photograph of the North Island Naval Station at San Diego, Calif.

Explaining that it was taken from an altitude of more than 70,000 feet — about 13 miles — he said that some of the lines shown in the picture were only six inches wide.

The photograph provides an example of "what could be accomplished through United Nations aerial surveillance," the President said. He did not mention the fact but it also provided an example of the kind of detailed photographic information which the United States evidently collected with the U2 photographic missions over Soviet territory.

Eisenhower went into some detail on the May 1 U2 incident which Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev cited as a reason for breaking up the summit meeting.

Overseas Military Included

Secretary Of State Urged
As Chief Security Officer

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—A plan to make the secretary of state the president's chief officer for all national security affairs — including overseas military matters — was offered to the Senate today.

George F. Kennan, former ambassador to the Soviet Union, said this proposal would give the United States "a better coordination of military policy with national policy generally than we have had in recent years."

His testimony was prepared for the subcommittee on national policy machinery headed by Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.). The hearings are aimed at finding and eliminating the causes of lapses, delays and rigidities in the government's decision-making process.

Kennan avoided reference to any specific cold war decisions, including the handling of the U2 spy plane incidents and other events preceding the collapse of the summit meeting last week.

But Kennan said "organizational deficiencies" and "cumbersomeness of our governmental machinery" have been important factors in "hampering our performance as a world power."

He deplored what he called the "contagion of bigness" in the government and a growing tendency to use advisory committees in seeking policy decisions. The committee system produces "endless compromises" and weak decisions, he said.

If a committee's disagreement is "bucked to the next higher level" Kennan testified, "the result usually is that the same process of compromise is merely repeated there."

Kennan headed the State Department's policy planning staff under the late former secretary, Gen. George C. Marshall. He is now a professor at the Institute for Advanced Studies, Princeton, N.J.

Integrated High
Schools To Enroll
8 More Negroes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Eight Negro junior high school students have been selected to attend integrated high schools here next year.

Their assignment by the local school board apparently means that a total of 13 Negroes will attend Central and Hall high schools. About 2,300 white students and eight Negroes attend the two schools this year. Three of the Negroes will graduate.

Leaders of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People said they expect other Negro students who sought admission to Central, Hall or still-white Technical High to ask for reassignment under state pupil placement laws.

The board used the federal court-approved placement laws, which do not mention race in making the selections.

6 Firms Due For Quiz

The Duquesne Light Co. of Pittsburgh, which serves Midland and other Beaver County communities, is among seven utilities scheduled for investigation by the Pennsylvania Utility Commission in connection with their earnings.

Duquesne and the others were given 30 days in which to prepare to meet with the commission for preliminary investigation.

3 Workmen Injured
When Tank Explodes

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP)—Three workmen were injured Wednesday when a 2,500-barrel tank loaded with asphalt exploded and burned, the Highway Patrol reported. Two men were released after treatment, one was hospitalized.

The workmen were welding on the outside of the tank when it exploded. The tank, about three miles south of the city, is owned by the Byerlight Corp. of Washington County. Damage was estimated at $10,000.

Man Faces Count
In Bank Theft Bid

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A Kentucky man was to be taken to Columbus today to face charges that he used intimidation and force with intent to commit robbery at a Waverly bank Wednesday.

Charles F. Hewlett, 48, was placed in Scioto County jail Wednesday night after he failed to post $10,000 bond set by U.S. Commissioner Julian Snyder.

The Boyd County, Ky., man waived preliminary hearing before Snyder and was bound over to the U.S. District Court in Columbus.

A man entered the First National Bank in Waverly Wednesday and handed teller Ruth Cooper a note which read: "I have a gun. I want $10,000." Bank President George S. Scott said the note was signed: "C. E. Hewlett."

The teller gave the man all the bills on the counter—$191.

Police and sheriff's deputies arrested Hewlett a short time later in a Waverly cocktail lounge. Police Chief Paul Durham said the man had "all but a dollar or so" of the $191 taken from the bank.

Cleveland Man Ordered
Freed In Arson Case

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Richard McGlon, 30, of Cleveland, was freed Wednesday from Stark County Jail by order of Common Pleas Judge John Rossetti. The judge said McGlon, in jail two months as a material witness in an arson investigation, was "unreasonably held without due process of law."

McGlon was held in lieu of $15,000 bond while police searched for James L. Gregory, 24, of Cleveland. Gregory was charged with setting a $135,000 fire at Massillon's City Club March 16.

U.S. Discounts Chance
Of 'Sneak' Pictures

PARAMUS, N.J. (AP)—It would be impossible for an enemy spy plane to sneak over the North Pole and take photographs of America, say Air Defense Command officials.

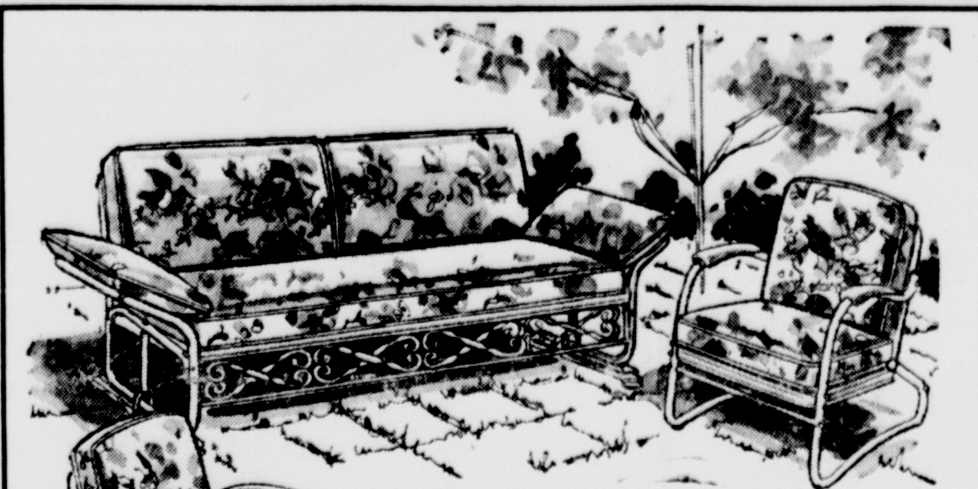

The officials, in charge of the U. S. Distant Early Warning DEW line system of radar stations in the Far North, made the comment Wednesday at the end of a two-day meeting to discuss the system in light of the U2 spy plane incident.

Up, Down Or In The Middle?

Steel production currently is flirting with a rate in the high 60s after falling steadily from a rate in the high 70s a month ago. Steel magazine says no improvement is to be hoped for until late July, when Automobile production picks up speed again.

Meanwhile, the steel industry's best bet for keeping orders coming in is the construction industry, but here as in other heavy users the situation is that users overestimated their needs and are continuing to liquidate surplus stocks.

There is that bugaboo again—surplus stocks. After the steel production rate has soared to full capacity a year ago, in anticipation of a strike, inventories were so high that even a 116-day strike could not bring all of them down to the disappearing point.

The strike proved, in effect, that if the steel industry produced at maximum capacity for six months the country could come close to making do without further major production for the next six months.

The industry's experience in this otherwise good if not boomy year is that steel production at a heavily curtailed rate is adequate to support a high rate of automotive production, the building industry, the appliance industry and its other customers, except in the most extraordinary circumstances. Some steel products, like cold rolled sheets and tin plate, that were hard to get early this year are now being scheduled for June production, according to Steel magazine.

Not many years ago, when the economic planners were conspicuously influential in Washington, it was the custom to tee off on the steel industry periodically, to the effect that it was maintaining a chronic shortage of capacity in order to create an artificial shortage of production. To this sniping charge, the industry always pointed to its program of privately underwritten expansion.

The industry obviously knew what it was doing. Capacity has been increased now to a point where even in good year it can out-run current demand. And this is a good year. All the indexes reflect a high rate of economic activity—not as high as some optimists would like it to be, but it never is.

When the year is over, there may have to be some reappraisals of some of the fixed circumstances of productivity in the United States. The automobile-steel complex, for instance, has become so intricately interwoven that the normal pattern of automotive production may be transferred in large degree to steel production.

With Alger Hiss For Veep?

The man who couldn't believe in the duck-billed platypus, which lays eggs, bears fur, nurses its young, burrows like a weasel but has a bill like a duck, would have even more trouble with egg-headed Democrats who have come out flatfooted and four-square for Nikita Khrushchev against Dwight Eisenhower.

Nearly anything is supposed to be possible in politics, especially in an election year, but this odd-ball issue thrust upon the Democrats by their egg-headed faction, paced and personified by Adlai Stevenson, taxes belief. No matter what these people think about the President's foreign policy and the way it has been administered, they cannot afford to have their party bracketed with the name of Khrushchev at a time when he and his government are busy with an all-out smear against the White House.

Nothing could be more nearly fatal to their forthcoming national campaign than to have it appear that one faction of Democrats is trying to bulldoze another faction into taking sides with a faction in Russia against the United States. Yet this is the incredible gambit risked by Mr. Stevenson and the Democratic Advisory Council.

THEY CANNOT even have the sour satisfaction of knowing that Mr. Khrushchev would still be around on election day. They would be gambling the chances of their party on something they could not control.

This is what has shocked wise heads like James A. Farley, Rep. Rayburn and Sen. Johnson into rebuking their rash brethren. It is what has caused the old pro, former President Truman, to repudiate such a brazen stand.

But one of the signatories to the brazen stand is Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri. Mr. Truman's choice for the Democratic nomination for president. Another signatory is Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts, who is supposed to have the nomination sewed up.

Could any Democratic National Convention withstand the shock of knowing it might be taking the party into a national campaign under the handicap of the charge that a vote for its candidate is a vote for Khrushchev? Or perhaps facing the accusation that Alger Hiss was running for vice president? It would not be likely.

THERE HAS BEEN, as the result of the fiasco in Paris, a shakeup of monumental proportions in Democratic presidential politics. If all the hopefuls but one are going to array themselves on the side that would be indefensible in a campaign, the one available man who has been able to maintain his separate identity is certain to become more attractive.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas has not identified himself with either Paul Butler, the Democratic chairman who seems to have sparked the drive to attack the Eisenhower administration for Khrushchev's behavior in Paris, or with the Democratic Advisory Council, backed by Sen. Kennedy, Sen. Symington and whose views were voiced by Adlai Stevenson.

Those who have been insisting that the cagey and careful Sen. Johnson would be heard from before July may be hearing from him sooner than he expected to make his move.

Part Of The Job

The efficiency and dispatch with which area firemen, police, utility workers, Civil Defense personnel and others meet the demands of emergencies is too often accepted by the public as their routine responsibility and "part of the job."

Yet the marshaling of rescue efforts which safely brought two construction workers out of a collapsed sewer trench here Tuesday was a performance of "jobs" with commendable speed and success.

And the long hours spent at a Glenmoor area strip mine pool by firemen and volunteers early Wednesday morning in a search for a possible drowning victim was a considerable imposition upon the time and energies of the men.

The pay is little or nothing and the risk is sometimes great, but there are rewards in the thanks of those aided or in the feeling of having done a good job in good faith for someone else in need.

Ike is back in the golf cart and it must be a relief not to hear anybody accusing him of spying when he takes a careful look at the green. Partner in golf was a soft drink tycoon whose presence may have made Ike feel that after the fight he could at least get something for the return of the bottles.

GM is to turn out three new compacts, choosing names "Tempest," "F-56" and "Special." This indicates GM officials who select names must be suffering from compact imaginations. "F-56" sounds like a new vitamin. "Special" has been applied for years to hamburgers, hotdogs, hairdos and detergents. "Tempest" is not bad, but it opens salesmen to customer's retort "BLOW!"

Question for world of today is "Wanna go to a summit meeting or take a chance on war some other way?"

There is one explanation for Ike's remarkable self restraint in Paris, when it is known that he must have inwardly felt the "Let me at him" mood. His extensive golf training had schooled him against overswinging and blowing his stack when in the rough.

Khrushchev put a complete spaceship into orbit, with pressurized cabin and a waxworks man or dummy. He may claim at any minute that the dummy is enjoying three meals a day, refusing restoratives and sending out signals which say, "What's new with Ike, De Gaulle and Macmillan?"

The Once Over

Mortimer Topblower says it's time people of U.S. put national security ahead of the car wash, clam bake, credit-card vacation and importance of a daily chance to wave at TV cameras.

More Americans are visibly disturbed by a detour, a traffic jam or a shorter coffee break than by the threats to the free world at Paris and at U.N. session, he declares.

"The question 'What do you think of the Soviet blasts at us?' will get you calmer replies than, 'Could I interest you in a home swimming pool, no money down?' or 'How do you stand on four-day weekends?'" said Mortimer.

"Either Mr. and Mrs. America are convinced nobody is screwy enough to start a world war or they are too busy polishing the radiator ornament, arguing over auto trade-in value and buying new porch furniture to bother about global news and telecasts."

He insists that he was at one home when the top correspondents of the world were explaining possible consequences of the Paris summit — There was rodeo on TV and a motion to switch to a song and dance program was carried unanimously.

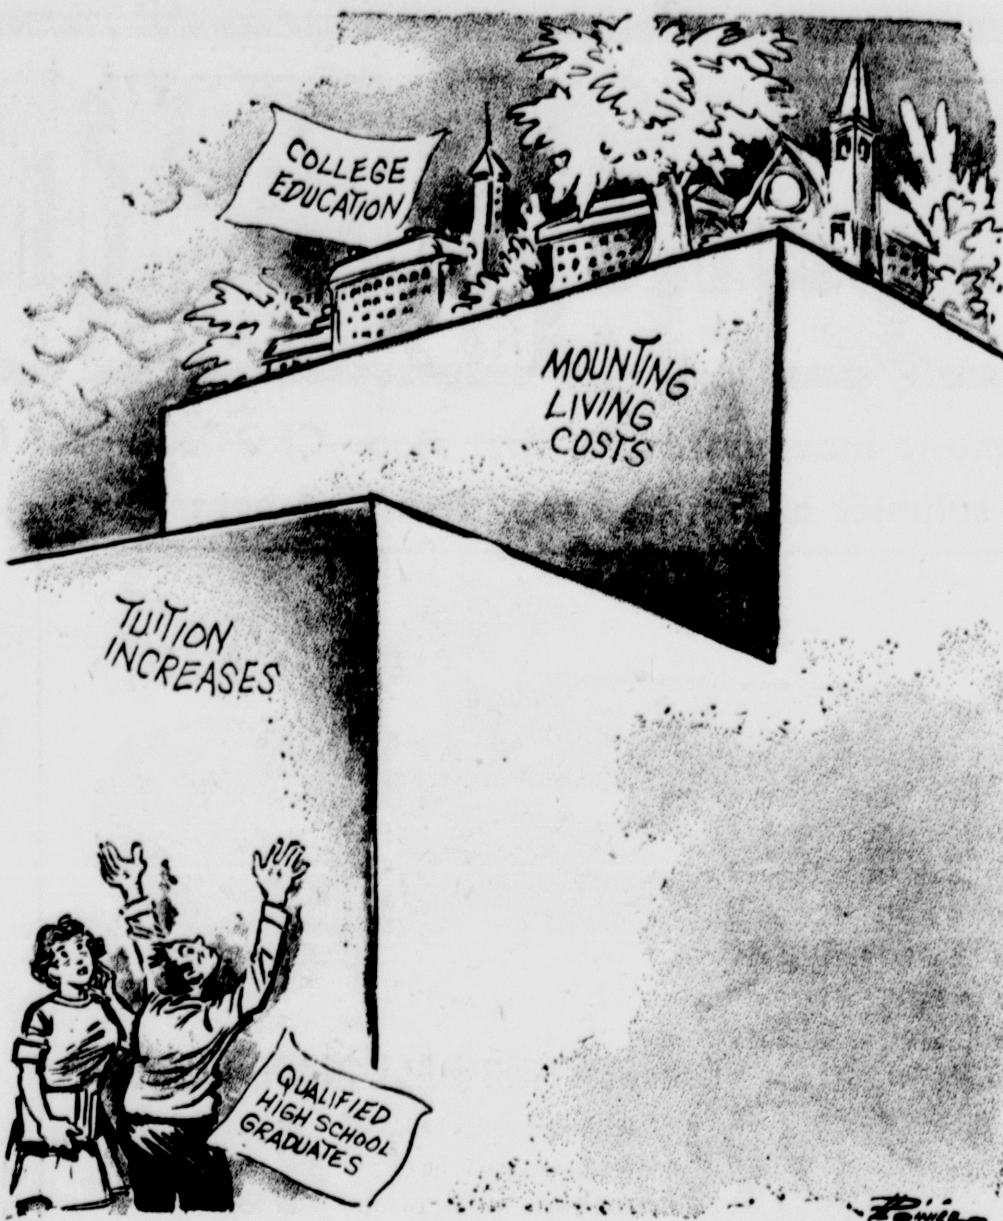

"I am more scared by the reaction of Americans to bullying threats to peace than by threats themselves," he snapped.

Topblower was especially upset by tepid extra police and dignified reactions of Macmillan and De Gaulle to the fish fry treatment of Ike. "I read their statements after Ike was parboiled by Nikita and it struck me they were no different than four free world pals were discussing a minor hit and run accident or a sudden thunderstorm during an outdoor barbecue," he said.

"Dignity is okay. But in a global hassle, good manners, stripped pants and a tender regard for Pollyanna, Emily Post and Lord Chesterfield ain't enough. We never won a summit yet from Teheran and Yalta to Paris, yet we still get hit by a knuckleballer and exit smiling in the mood of happy Rotarians. I won't feel right until our side comes up with something more stirring after a slugging than 'Whatever happens let's not forget our manners.'"

U.S. Labor Group To Visit Russia

By Victor Riesel

A wireless message from Moscow was placed on a Chicago labor leader's desk Friday afternoon.

May 20—a week after N. S. Khrushchev blew the summit's top.

The cable was signed by a Soviet official, V. Gorshkov, a functionary who would not sneeze unless he had permission—signed in triplicate.

This cable is evidence that the Russians, having retreated from the summit, are trying to break through at the base.

Official policy still is to woo us from below. Otherwise V. Gorshkov would never have cabled Chicago.

Gorshkov is vice president of the Union of Soviet Societies for Friendship and Cultural Ties with Foreign Countries. In the name of the "USSFCFTFC," he invited 11 U.S. labor officials to spend time in Russia this summer.

"The Union of Soviet Societies and Friendship and Cultural Ties with Foreign Countries invites a delegation of trade unionists to the Soviet Union for three weeks."

"We hope the visit of your delegation to the Soviet Union will promote better understanding and consolidation of friendly ties between the peoples of our countries. Friendly greetings."

THE CABLE was addressed to Sidney Lens, director of the United Service Employees, Local 329.

Copies went to several others who had organized a group of minor AFL-CIO officials and one independent, Harold Gibbons, who has charge of Jimmy Hoffa's foreign affairs activities.

I do not intend any reflection on the intellectuality of Lens and his colleagues when I describe them as fairly far down on the command chain of American labor. I do so to point out that the Soviets are eager for any labor delegation from the United States.

Then Moscow's propaganda apparatus can boast that it was host to "American union leaders" long after N. S. Khrushchev's gamut-running in Paris. The objective of such propaganda in the class-conscious nations of Africa and Asia is obvious.

So important is this "Operation Invitation" that Chairman Khrushchev himself pushed it during his talk with Walter Reuther and a small group of labor leaders in San Francisco last September.

Khrushchev himself related the incident in Paris recently during a closed conference with French labor chiefs. The Soviet leaders revealed that he had said to Reuther:

"You are like a nightingale. When it sings it closes its eyes and doesn't see or hear anything except itself."

LATER MR. K had some of his aides invite Reuther and his brother Victor to visit Moscow "with open eyes." They refused.

After that, the pursuit of United States union leaders continued until the National Maritime Union president, Joe Curran, agreed to accept the invitation of the Sea and River Workers Union of the U.S.S.R.

A few days ago Curran charged that Khrushchev "wrecked" the summit with "violent anti-U.S. tirades." But no one in Moscow has told Curran to stay home.

Fact is that the Russians are looking for more U.S. labor chiefs. Their tactic is simple.

The Soviet Embassy intelligence service monitors American labor. Then it selects potential guests.

The embassy's cultural attaché contacts them. If they agree to go they are organized in a bloc. Then the formal invitation comes from a "non-government" Soviet agency.

Usually this is the Moscow paper outfit known as the "Union of Soviet Societies for Friendship . . . etc."

THE FIRST BATCH of American unionists will leave Idlewild International Airport July 3. Two days later they'll arrive in Warsaw for a three-day stay. They'll get to Moscow on the 9th.

They'll pay their own travel expenses to the Iron Curtain. After that the U.S.S.R. pays the tab. This group does not include Joe Curran. He's making his own way.

The Americans have asked to talk freely and informally to writers, educators, lawyers and officials of so-called trade unions.

Those of the group I've contacted told me they'll report critically when they return if criticism is justified. We'll see.

These Americans carry a great responsibility with them. They'll find themselves suddenly being represented as labor envoys of America's working people.

The Russians will make certain that every friendly word these minor officials utter will be heard round the world—and not to the advantage of the United States.

Taking Out Insurance

By James Marlow

and none of them has helped the Republicans or their chances.

In view of all this, Rockefeller's statement and his emergence from the coy cavern in which he has been staying since last December, can be considered simply as a piece of political insurance, just in case.

This belief seems borne out by Rockefeller's own statement last April 8 when he was asked if he would reconsider heading the Republican ticket.

"We will cross that bridge when we come to it," he said. "I do not think the opportunity is apt to come."

Until now he had made only one thing clear: He would not accept the Republican vice presidential nomination. He still says that. And he has been absolutely consistent on this: He has steadfastly refused to endorse Nixon for the presidential nomination.

When he said last December he was withdrawing as a candidate in a race with Nixon, he put the reason on the "great majority of those (professional Republican politicians) who will control" the convention. Meaning: He had found out they were for Nixon.

But four days later, Dec. 30, it was learned that the large personal staff which was ready to push a presidential campaign for him would be kept on.

One conclusion could be drawn from this: That he hadn't stopped wanting the Republican nomination and would start looking for it again if he thought he had any chance at all.

Summit Tension Eases In Security Council

The "tension" seems to be easing off. Maybe the press of the world unwittingly inflated the significance of what now appears to have been artificially contrived anger at the summit by Soviet Premier Khrushchev. Certainly, as this correspondent watched the session of the Security Council of the United Nations in New York, the whole proceeding had a perfunctory air, with no feeling of crisis. It seemed to be the routine way the United Nations handles debates largely designed for propaganda purposes.

An impression of perfunctoryness was particularly conveyed by Andrei Gromyko, the Soviet foreign minister, who sat at the main table and, in an expressionless way, read for an hour in monotonous a document criticizing the United States.

When he finished, the reading of the official translations took another hour.

Most of the delegates, and the members of the press, left the hall while the official translations were being read.

This was because, as Mr. Gromyko spoke, everyone had at his seat earphones carrying simultaneously on each channel a translation in English and French, called "unofficial," but accurate enough to tell the audience what was going on.

SOMEHOW, however, it was the synthetic nature of the Gromyko speech which made the meeting something of an anticlimax after the tirades of abuse which Mr. Khrushchev had heaped on the President of the United States last week in Paris.

The pious exhortations of Mr. Gromyko seemed the essence of hypocrisy, especially his new concern for international law and his amazement over the fact that an unarmed plane with a single engine and a single occupant flew over the Soviet Union and took pictures—all of which, in his words, constituted an "act of aggression."

Indeed, at one time he struggled to develop some kind of analogy between the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941 and the recent American plane flight.

He finally conceded that, while it wasn't exactly parallel, the same theory of "perfidy" could be applied.

Former Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, who is doing a remarkable able job as the ambassador of the United States at the United Nations, picked the Gromyko argument to pieces in a few well-chosen sentences.

He said America could bring up lots of spy cases when the spying was done at much less than 65,000 feet in the air—namely, on the ground.

He gave the names of the Soviet spies who have been arrested in recent years and whose activities we had not magnified into "acts of aggression."

THIS RAISES a question. Incidentally, of whether the word

"spy" is being properly used in connection with the Powers incident.

Usually a spy is one who is disguised to conceal his identity. But the Powers plane was marked and readily identified as from the United States.

The plane contained only cameras which were capable of photographing any part of the Soviet Union. But so do the space satellites, flown by both Russia and the United States, which are able to take pictures far far above the ground.

As Gen. De Gaulle of France pointed out to Mr. Khrushchev at the Paris meeting, a Soviet satellite, which can take photographs, has been crossing France 18 times a day, and this has not been called "espionage" or "spying" or been the subject of protest.

It is really a violation of any nation's sovereignty to fly 12 miles or more up in the air and take pictures?

Mr. Gromyko seems to think it is when American planes do it but nobody has threatened to interfere with the Russian space ships when they fly over American territory.

All this is doubtless something for the United Nations to discuss sometime in its academic way.

Basically, the U.N. is used for propaganda. It can't really legislate on world problems. It is not a world government.

It is a forum at which governments blow off steam. This may be useful because the moral force of public opinion sometimes can be influential in preventing military conflicts.

THE U.N. is, therefore, a convenient mechanism for cooling the tempers of potential belligerents.

But even before the U.N. Security Council met, Mr. Khrushchev indicated in his East Berlin speech that, when he had gotten sufficient mileage out of the Powers plane episode, he would turn on the "peaceful co-existence" tune again.

Release of the American C-47 transport plane, which was forced down when it accidentally flew over East Germany, is a sign that the Soviets aren't seeking more crises for the time being anyway.

The Soviet Premier probably knew he was headed for checkmate at the Paris summit meeting because the West wouldn't give in on the Berlin issue, so he decided on a strategy of stalling.

Mr. Khrushchev now talks of another summit conference "in six or eight months." But he might be willing to delay even longer.

For the Berlin issue merely diverts attention from other disputes and enables the Soviet Union to get virtual recognition of the so-called "status quo" in Eastern Europe.

This means Western acquiescence in the conquest by the Soviet Union of Poland, Bulgaria, Romania, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and East Germany.

It has been quite an extensive aggression, and the more issues Mr. Khrushchev can raise in other fields, perhaps the less attention will be paid by the West to the slavery and bondage in which millions of people are held in the satellite states in Eastern Europe.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: I have the feeling the Kremlin plays on public opinion in the United States the way an organist plays on a pipe organ. Do you feel the same way?

Take the spy airplane incident. Think for a minute what those devils have done with something they've known about for four years.

By springing the news they had brought down a plane and has its pilot in custody they threw us into a stemwinding tizzy that has our politicians at one another's throat and has pre-empted all conversation.

Why were they able to do this?

Simply because they took advantage of a weakness in our own public opinion setup. Whatever we find out something that has been kept from us it sets us on our ear, especially if it's bad news.

We immediately spit blood and demand that someone be punished for, first, keeping us in the dark, and second, for letting the light be turned on.

Our first reaction to bad news is always the same. We want someone's head served up on a platter with recrimination relish. That is the way it worked out in the spy plane incident.

By telling us about something our own government had kept hidden from us, the Russians could count on making us lunge at another with a view to severing a lot of jugular veins in partisan politics.

They could count on recriminations and revenge. They could be so busy cutting up each other and demanding to know why this and that had and hadn't been done that we would stay preoccupied for weeks.

If they had written the script and rehearsed it, they couldn't have done a better job of making monkeys of us — and that is what gives me the feeling they have learned how to play any tune they want on our public opinion. They manipulate us like a pipe organ.

Goodness only knows what tune they will choose next. But chances are they will find some other area of public ignorance and bring it in to the open. They may not be as lucky as they were with the U2 business, but they can count on us to react with shock, disenchantment, bitterness, partisan sniping, investigating, second-guessing and confusion.

They can be sure we'll be so busy with political blood-letting that we'll have no strength to wonder what they are up to that needs the benefit of our inattention. My guess is that they wanted to get our minds off Cuba while they consolidated the strength they are building there.

Or perhaps they calculated that they could get our politicians to milling around, instead of tending to running the country. It's possible that they wanted to spin us off on another round of money depreciation by setting off a war scare that will wipe out the anticipated surplus in the national budget.

Whatever it is, they could count on us to start scratching one another when they threw the fishworm into the chicken yard. Or didn't you ever see what happens when a lot of old hens go after a fishworm?

In that regard, your aunt says I should know because of all the hehens she ever did see I'm the cluckiest. Regards to the family. Cotton Corners UNCLE GEORGE

Youth's Stalled Auto
Pushed To River Edge

An East Liverpool youth complained to police he left his auto on a riverfront street Wednesday night after it stalled and found when he returned that someone had pushed it over an embankment, but the car halted at the water's edge.

Bruce Campbell, 1039 Vine St., made the report to police at 1:30 a. m. He said he left the 1952 auto on 1st St. near the Newell bridge after it refused to start. When he returned a short time later, he found it had been pushed over the embankment, halting at the edge of the river. Campbell was to have the auto towed from the spot today, police said.

CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run . . . went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard to certify that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

Early Signup Urged For Salineville Pupils

SALINEVILLE — Parents of pupils planning to enter first grade in September should have the youngsters registered as soon as possible if the registration has not yet been made, Thomas Leek, high school principal, announced today.

Parents should register the children at the school by June 10, either by phone or in person, Leek said. Registration must be made even if the child has had the required inoculations, Leek said, pointing out some parents mistakenly believe the youngsters are registered when the shots are given.

Registration is necessary to plan for the first grade program, he added.

Hearing Fixed

On June 2 For

Knife Charge

2nd Annual Dinner Event

Kaycees Honor 12 Students At Midland High

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today fixed a preliminary hearing June 2 at 9:30 a. m. for John J. Staherek, 321 W. 9th St., who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon after he allegedly brandished a carving knife Sunday night at a patrolman who had gone to his home on a report of a domestic disturbance.

Staherek entered a not guilty plea at arraignment today through his counsel, Atty. Bernard Fineman. The defense counsel then was granted a continuance under a new state law that says such a hearing will not proceed immediately unless both the prosecution and the defense agree.

The defendant also entered not guilty pleas to two other charges growing out of the same alleged incident — intoxication and resisting arrest. The judge continued his bond at $1,500 on all 3 charges. Staherek has been in jail since his arrest, unable to raise the surety to regain his freedom.

To win the continuance, Atty. Fineman cited a new section of the statutes which provides a continuance will be granted for up to 10 days after a defendant had pleaded to a felony and if the defense is not ready to proceed.

Staherek is accused of using a knife to threaten Patrolman Milton L. Fowler, who had gone to the defendant's home, along with Lt. Thomas A. Walker. While the officers were seeking to learn the cause of the disturbance, Staherek obtained the knife and threatened the patrolman, police reported.

Merchants See Game

Despite Failure Of Bus

Fifty members of the East Liverpool Merchants Association and the Chamber of Commerce managed to get to Forbes Field to see a Pirate-Dodger baseball game Wednesday night, despite the fact the chartered bus taking them to Pittsburgh broke down at Chester for two hours.

It was the third consecutive year the merchants have attended a Pirate game on their spring outing and the third time they have seen the Pirates lose. Los Angeles won last night, 5-1. The group attended a dinner before the game and had a snack afterward—both at the Webster Hall Hotel.

Midland Knights of Columbus, Council 2005, held its second annual honor student dinner Wednesday evening, citing 12 Midland Lincoln High School "A" seniors at the St. Anthony Club. Some 120 attended. Louis Bruno, grand knighted, presented awards to:

Wellsville Red Cross

Fund Drive Nears End

Fred Baldasare, president of the Wellsville Red Cross Chapter, announced today the 1960 fund drive will end Tuesday with an approximate total of $1,900.

The goal was $2,595. Baldasare returned Sunday from Kansas City, Mo., where he attended the national convention.

He will report on the convention activities to chapter officers and directors in the near future.

Hancock May Gain In House

Seats With Higher Population

CHARLESTON — It appears the 1960 census is going to cause some changes in apportionment of county seats in the West Virginia House of Delegates.

Rough calculations based on preliminary census figures indicate possible gains in the delegate representation of Hancock and Wood counties and losses for Fayette and McDowell. Some other counties may also be affected.

A statewide preliminary total for the 1960 population census is not yet available. It awaits figures on the state's two largest cities in the two largest counties, Charleston in Kanawha and Huntington in Cabell.

But Edgar Byron of Pittsburgh, regional director of the Census Bureau, said it appeared West Virginia's population loss as compared to the last previous census in 1950 would be something over 150,000. The 1950 population was 2,005,552.

A loss of a flat 150,000 would leave the state with a population of 1,855,552. And that would make the population base for one seat in the 100-member House of Delegates 18,555.

On that basis, Hancock and Wood counties would have enough population for a gain of one seat each.

At present, Hancock has one seat in the House and Wood has three.

Preliminary census figures show Hancock County with a population of 39,523, a gain of 5,135 and Wood with 78,254, a gain of 11,714.

The Legislature is required to reapportion House seats and the 16 State Senate districts on the basis of each decennial census. The state constitution requires the senatorial districts, each of which has two Senators, to be "as nearly as practicable" equal in population.

Gold star mothers and borough officials will ride in cars.

The Rev. James N. Servey, pastor of the Ohio View Lutheran Church, will be speaker for the ceremonies at 11 a. m. before the cenotaph in Lincoln Park. The firing squad will fire volleys.

Other ceremonies will be held at 12:45 p. m. at the Veterans Memorial Pool, prior to the opening of the pool at 1 p. m. A wreath will be laid on the water and retrieved by Kathy and Karin Trainer, twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Trainer Jr., 1157 Ohio Ave.

The color guard, Doyle, chaplain, and John Reider, commander, will be on hand for the pool ceremony.

Auction Nets $350

EAST PALESTINE — Some $350 was netted in the annual public auction sponsored by the Kiwanis Club Wednesday at City Park. Proceeds are used for club projects, Robert Johnston, chairman, said.

McDonald Due

At Conference

Of Steel Union

David J. McDonald, president of the Steelworkers Union, will keynote the beginning of the largest steelworkers conference ever held in District 20, Kay Kluz, acting director, announced.

Nearly 300 delegates of the district including 47 from Midland Local 1212, will gather in the Broadhead Hotel in Beaver Falls for the 17th annual meeting of Steelworkers' leaders beginning Friday.

Activities will include election of the district's four members to the union's wage policy committee. Michael J. Hohan of Local 1212 is incumbent of the Rochester-Midland-East Liverpool area.

A highlight of the afternoon will be a 45-minute movie of events in the district for the past year.

Reports will include one of the past steel negotiations, strike cost and procedures, including the cost of the strike relief program and the present unemployment picture, Kluz said.

W. L. Abel, international secretary-treasurer, will address the annual banquet for the closing session of the conference Saturday.

Other speakers will include Howard Hague, international vice president; President Judge Robert E. McCreary of Beaver County, George Medrick, director of District 11; John Tomayko, director of the union's insurance, pension and SUB department.

Charles Ford, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Legislative Committee; Assemblymen Charles Stone, William Kovalenko and Robert Hamilton, and State Sen. John C. Miller and Congressman Frank M. Clark.

Bingo Ordered Closed

PITTSBURGH — Safety Director Louis Rosenberg has ordered the closing of all bingo games that offer cash prizes. He said Wednesday the award of cash prizes at the games violates state law. Games operated by churches, charitable organizations and veterans groups will not be permitted in Pittsburgh if cash prizes are awarded, he said.

Western Board Aims

Sources Of Revenue

Means for raising anticipated revenue for a tentative budget of $480,558 were discussed at a special meeting of the Board of Education of the Western Beaver County School District Wednesday evening.

A representative of the Pennsylvania Economy League, Inc., was present for a discussion on taxes and powers under the law for the district to levy taxes. The organization, which has a Beaver County branch, makes surveys.

No action was taken by the board. Business was deferred until the regular meeting June 6. The board met in the Ray W. Snyder School in Industry. James P. McClaskey is president.

Dedication of the new school will be held in June and a definite date will be decided after word from the school authority, Frank

Meredith, supervising principal, said.

West Virginia Increases Public Utilities Valuations

CHARLESTON (AP) — Public utilities in West Virginia will have their chance to protest the valuations put on their property at Board of Public Works hearings to be held next week.

The Tax Department announced Wednesday that it had raised the total valuations $15,731,586 to $368,679,186. Its figures are tentative. The board makes the final decisions after its hearings, which are scheduled to run from next Wednesday through Friday.

In 1959 the utilities wound up with a property tax bill of $20,131,391. How much they pay this year, as usual, will be determined by calculating county levy rates against their final valuations.

The two big classes into which their property is divided are III and IV. These account for $825,189,300 of the 1960 tentative total. Both consist of real and personal property. Class III is that located outside municipalities. Class IV that located inside.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway has received the highest valuation, as it has done before again and again. The amount this time for the two classes is 118 1/2 million dollars, up five million from last year.

The Norfolk & Western Railway showed an increase of 37 million dollars over 1959 because of its merger with the Virginian Railway. The new valuation is 117 1/2 million.

Appalachian Power Co. comes third with 111 million, up two million, followed by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad — 76 million, down two million — and Monongahela Power Co. — 69 million, up two million.

Following are tentative valuations in Classes III and IV for some of the other major utilities and the increase (i) or decrease (d) from last year's final figures in those classes:

Telephone and telegraph companies — General Telephone Co. of the Southeast, $3,500,000, unchanged; Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co., $41,500,000, i. $3,000,000; $525,000, unchanged.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Thinking Girl's Posture Needs Check-Up

Do you look like your job? Incredible as it may seem, years of sitting in a slumped posture—bending over a typewriter, a desk, a drawing board, or a sewing machine, can bring on a positive hump.

Ward off such disfigurement. If you will take corrective measures in the way Ida Jean Kain, 30's and 40's, your posture can be straight and young in the 60's and 70's. You need not bow down with age even though you live to be 100.

To wake up to what's going on right behind your back, try this simple test: Sit sideways to a mirror in your habitual posture. Assume the exact position you use when hunched over your typewriter—in what might be termed the thinking girl's posture.

IF THE WAY you sit encourages a forward position of your head, neck and shoulders, you're on the way to a rounded upper back. This posture fault is frightfully aging. Indeed one's posture grows old from the shoulder blades up.

When you're tired and have to keep on at your desk, instead of slumping, or forcing tired muscles to hold you erect, it is a good plan to place a book or a small flat cushion just below the shoulder blades. Then lean against the chairback to hold this in place. This device will help to keep you in erect posture without effort and prevent the muscles from being overly stretched.

Practice this corrective measure at home: Lie on back on floor with a folded towel placed directly under the outcurve of the shoulders. This counteracts the inclination to round the shoulders.

To square the shoulders and bring them into lovely line, assume this rest position: Lie on back, knees flexed, soles of feet on floor, have arms out at sides at shoulder level with elbows bent to form an L. Try to pull small of back into floor, and hold this snug up-and-in pull. This rest-exercise position helps counteract swayback.

Such posture rules as "throw back your shoulders" and "hold your stomach in" are misleading. Shoulders are not meant to be carried back, nor curved forward, but to be held level and square. Girdle muscles should be pulled up and in so that the lift is centered through the middle of the figure, shoulders at ease.

Forget all posture rules except this one: Stand and sit tall without strain. Get the habit of bending forward only from the hip-joint, keeping back all of a piece.

AND DO CHECK your head carriage. Hold your head elegantly high and keep your chin level and you've got it!

If you have serious posture faults it would pay you to take supervised exercise for a time, passive or assistive. Once you get the feel of good posture and strengthen the right muscles to do the job of holding you correctly, from then on the best possible exercise is the practice of good posture.

Send a long, self-addressed envelope for "Get A Lift With Posture." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

U.S. Rushes Aid To 4,000 Trapped After Tidal Wave

TOKYO (AP) — U.S. military boats and helicopters rushed relief to 4,000 persons stranded on Yagaji Island off Okinawa today as the Far East cleaned up after the tidal waves exploded by the Chilean earthquakes.

Walloping waves washed away the lone bridge connecting Yagaji with the main island of Okinawa and the isolated residents were left short of food and without drinking water.

The Philippine News Service reported 16 dead in the wake of the tidal waves that battered the eastern Philippine coast Monday night and Tuesday.

It was the first report of deaths in the Philippines, which previously had reported only property damage.

Japanese police, reckoning the toll of the savage tides, estimated property damage at 60 million dollars and listed 99 dead, 46 missing, 856 injured and 167,147 homeless.

Population Far Below Pennsylvania Estimates

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pennsylvania's 1960 population won't come anywhere near pre-census expectations if early census totals are an indication.

Figures for 45 out of the state's 67 counties show a slight decrease in population in the past 10 years. The total of the 45 counties was given as 4,203,446 — a decrease of 22,144.

Before the census was taken, Edgar Bryan, in charge of the census throughout most of the state, predicted an eight per cent increase.

The results so far, Bryan emphasized, are only preliminary figures subject to revision. He said the final total is more likely to increase than go the other way. "But not much," he added.

Father Sends 2 Sons Back To Public School

CINCINNATI (AP) — Lawrence Ashcraft's two sons have gone back to Columbian School, from which their father withdrew them because it is predominantly Negro.

The boys, Robert, 9, and Larry, 8, have been attending a parochial school recently but Wednesday their father took them back to the public school. He gave no explanation.

Only last week the Board of Education dropped charges of child neglect against Ashcraft, after the board learned the youngsters were being sent to the parochial school. Ashcraft was arrested last March in the case.

2 Motorists Fined

LISBON — Charles E. Brown, 22, of Salineville R. D. 1 was fined $5 and costs for driving with a defective muffler and Jack Kolat, 53, of Youngstown $10 and costs for driving on a temporary permit when not accompanied by a licensed driver in State Highway Patrol cases heard by County Judge James L. MacDonald Wednesday.

Fire Department Quells Coal Fire On Railroad

FREMONT, Ohio (AP) — The fire department in nearby Clyde was called out Wednesday night to extinguish flames created by burning coal that spilled from 14 derailed freight cars. Officials said a broken bolster arm caused the 14 cars, part of a 100-car Nickel Plate train, to jump the tracks near Clyde.

No one was injured, but a privately-owned garage and a car were damaged by one of the railroad cars.

Falls To Death

CINCINNATI (AP) — Robert A. Carpenter, 26, employed as a window washer only five days, fell eight floors to his death Wednesday from a downtown bank building. His body struck and injured Mrs. Ruth Stuntebeck, 53, a pedestrian.

Hancock Schools To Close With Friday's Classes

Hancock County's 7,768 school pupils begin their annual summer vacation with the conclusion of the 1959-60 term Friday afternoon but the 290 teachers will still have a few days of work to complete. A full day of classes is scheduled tomorrow at schools in Chester, Newell, New Cumberland, Weirton and Pughtown. Unlike in past years, students will not have to return later for their final report cards. They will be mailed sometime after the final day, Supt. Robert H. Hall reported. The annual county school picnic will be held June 4 at Rock Springs Park in Chester, the final activity of the term.

A year-end workshop for teachers is scheduled June 2-3 in Weir High School in Weirton. Teachers will be in their respective buildings on Tuesday cleaning up last week details. Instructors will be paid for the post-school workshop. All are required to attend.

The county's 1959-60 term consisted of 176 days of school. Pupils were off for 6 holidays including a teachers' convention and the primary election May 10. Minnesota claims to have 10,000 lakes.

By MARIE TORRE
Garry Moore Wins Fewer Commercials

Next time they hand out awards for television achievement, it's genuinely hoped they'll remember to give one to Garry Moore for his part in the relief of commercial fatigue.

Moore, the performer, may be many things to many people, but to those of us who've quietly rebelled against the overcommercialization of TV, he is nothing short of "Our Leader."

He cared enough about viewer sensitivity to commercial interruptions to buck a whole network (CBS, that is) on the reduction of advertising breaks on his weekly caper.

OUTCOME: Next season the Moore reveals will be interrupted for a maximum of four messages from the sponsor during the hour, instead of the current seven.

This just became official at CBS, where Moore's determination exceeded executive resistance. The only point he lost was on the station break, alternate Tuesdays, when he'll have co-sponsors.

For reasons that defy brief explanation, hour-long programs sponsored by more than one advertiser must have a station break, but this will be eliminated on the alternate Tuesdays to be sponsored solely by one sponsor.

MOORE HAS BEEN tireless in his efforts to reduce the commercial intrusion, and, as a recent editorial noted, isn't it "perplexing that he, rather than the advertisers or the agencies, should have been the first to see that his show's values were being diluted by too many commercials."

Moore vigorously concurs. "In the interests of better television," he says, "advertisers and the networks should spearhead such efforts. After all, we have a common goal—to upgrade programs."

"I left daytime television a couple of years ago because, frankly, I couldn't cope with the number of commercials that had to be accommodated."

PERFORMERS of Moore's box office power wield considerable influence at the networks, and while we may be dealing in wishful thinking, it would contribute so much to the nation's viewing pleasure if other stars were to take up the anticommmercial cudgels.

Jack Paar, for example! "The wags kid not when they say, 'And now we interrupt this commercial for a bit of the Jack Paar Show.' 'If I were Paar,' remarked Moore, 'I'd give NBC a fight on those commercials—instead of a water closet joke!'"

ALFREDO ANTONINI'S CBS Symphony Orchestra, inactive since 1950, is being reorganized for a television concert on "Spring Music Festival" June 9.

Ella Fitzgerald and Robert Stack open their houses to "Person to Person" June 3.

Effective June 21, CBS' summer schedule will include "Peck's Bad Girl," a weekly presentation of "episodes especially selected for summer viewing" (in other words, reruns).

Tennessee Ernie Ford has been signed as host for "How Tall is a Giant?" which promises to be heart-warming fare. To be presented on BC June 14, the story deals with the true experiences of 14 impoverished boys from Monterey, Mexico, who overcame trepidation and hostility to win the Little League World Series baseball crown in 1957.

Tammy Grimes, known mostly for her singing, tackles a mystery role in "The Datchet Diamonds," which will be shown on "The Hour of Great Mysteries" in the fall.

Michael Rooney will satisfy that urge to direct with one of the shows in this summer's "Happy" series, the program which will spell Perry Como for half the Wednesday night hour during the hot weather months.

George Gobel closes out his TV season with a double on June 5. On that evening, there'll be a repeat of his "Theater" performance in "They Like Me Fine," and the last of his Sunday night series. Gobel's TV future: Unknown.

8, WTAE, WEWS, Donna Reed: Donna is trapped in a circle of idle, small-town gossip.

8, WJAC, WTRF, WHIC, B & M Masterson: He is hired when diseased cattle are smuggled across the Rio Grande.

9, KDKA, WSTV, Zane Grey: Danny Thomas and Nick Adams co-star in "A Thread of Respect."

9, WJAC, WTRF, WHIC, Bachelor Father: Bentley tries to dissuade Kelly from becoming a beachcomber.

9:30, WJAC, WTRF, WHIC, Ernie Ford: George Gobel is a guest.

10, KDKA, WSTV, Spring Festival: A concert by the Philadelphia Orchestra, directed by Eugene Ormandy.

10, WJAC, WTRF, WHIC, B & M Your Life: Fred Haney, former manager of the Milwaukee Braves, is a contestant.

11:15, KDKA, Movie: "I Love a Soldier." Sonny Tufts, Paulette Goddard.

11:20, WSTV, Movie: "Armored Attack." Dana Andrews, Anne Baxter.

State Will Sell More Houses For New Road

The State Highway Department said today it will accept bids until June 10 at its office in Columbus for sale of 37 more homes it has acquired to clear the right-of-way for a California Hollow-West End Freeway.

The homes are located on Chestnut St., Chestnut St. Ext., McDonald St., John St., W. 9th St., Ridgeway Ave., W. 8th St. and Rural Ln. Some of the owners protested they have negotiated with the state for the sale, but have received no money. Most of the homes are owner-occupied.

They said they are hampered in efforts to acquire new homes because the state has not made payment yet for the homes it is offering for re-sale in two weeks.

The new owners will be required to raze the homes or remove them from the right-of-way. It's the second group of homes offered for sale by the Highway Department. The first group, advertised a few weeks ago, totaled less than a dozen.

The homes being offered for sale are: A 2-story frame at 1114 Chestnut St. Ext., owned by Mrs. Mary Martin of Gardendale; a one-story frame on Chestnut St. Ext. owned by a Reynolds family; a two-story frame at 1117 Chestnut St. owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayward, now in California.

Perry Blanks Washington 1-0 In 11 Innings

Francona's 2-Out Single Drives Home Winning Run

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians head west today on an eight-game road trip only a few percentage points behind the American League's first-place Baltimore.

Jim Perry's 11-inning, eight-hit shutout of the Washington Senators here Wednesday night put the Indians a full game ahead of the Chicago White Sox and three games ahead of the New York Yankees.

The game concluded the Tribe's home stand with a 7-4 mark.

Perry, who had a blister trimmed in the seventh inning, seemed to improve as the game progressed.

"My breaking stuff got better around the sixth inning," Perry said. "I tried to pace myself and wasn't too tired. I might have been able to go a couple more innings."

Tito Francona's single in the 11th, with two out and two on base, scored the only run of the 1-0 game.

The hit sent Jim Piersall home from third and gave Perry his third victory against two defeats.

The 23-year-old right-hander gave up nothing but singles, struck out eight and walked only two.

Bill Fischer, now 0-1, was starting for the Senators for the first time this season. He blanked the Indians on four singles until the 11th.

Piersall started the winning rally with a one-out single to left, stretching his hit streak to 12 games. Then Ken Aspromonte singled.

Piersall reached third and Aspromonte second as Harvey Kuenn, with a half swing, rolled to second baseman Billy Gardner for the second out.

That left first base open, but Vic Power, following Francona in the batting order, had 3-for-4, so Fischer pitched to Francona. Tito swung and the ball sailed on a line to center field, where Lennie Green made a futile dive.

Perry was in trouble in the 10th inning. Jose Valdivielso singled with one out, and Fischer popped a safe bunt. Billy Gardner singled to right fielder Kuenn, who made a perfect throw to the plate to retire Valdivielso trying to score.

Manager Joe Gordon said Gary Bell, Wynn Hawkins and Jim Grant will work Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Detroit. There is no game today for Cleveland.

Daily Double Twice-A-Day At Waterford

Waterford Park will present another racing "first" during the 60-day summer racing season which opens next Monday afternoon, May 30, and continues through Aug. 6.

Aware of the high popularity of the "daily double" in the area, President James F. Edwards has received permission from the West Virginia Racing Commission to present two daily doubles on each racing afternoon, the first comprising the usual first and second races and the other based upon the eighth and ninth events.

"Waterford Park patrons have always been acutely daily double conscious," Edwards said. "For that reason, after considering the installation of the 'Pie Six' the 'Big Bonus' and the Quiniela, we finally decided upon a second daily double, and permission has been granted us for its adoption starting on inaugural afternoon. The first double will be on the opening two races, and then daily double windows will re-open after the sixth race and be based upon the final two events of the day."

Yankee Bill Skowron made two or more hits in eight of the Yankees' first 12 games this season and was hitting above .400.

Howard Hits One Of Longest, Travels At Least 550 Feet

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Frank Howard, Los Angeles' 240-pound rookie, has ended his first series in Pittsburgh with a bang — one that fell about 15 feet short of the longest homer ever hit in baseball.

The 6-foot-7 outfielder blasted a ball over Forbes Field's left field wall Wednesday night and it landed about 550 feet from the plate. The second-inning homer was a solo shot that helped defeat the Pirates 5-1.

Asked what kind of pitch he hit off starter Jim Umbricht, Howard replied:

"I think it was a slider thrown high. But I don't know. You know how it is when you're up there hitting. A ball player can't always tell what he hits."

Havana Pitcher Is Defeated On 1-Hit Performance

By The Associated Press
Put in a vote for Havana's Bob Miller as the International League's "hard luck guy" this year.

Miller allowed the Miami Marlins only one hit Wednesday night but lost 1-0. A walk, a wild pitch and a two-base throwing error got the run home.

The Toronto Maple Leafs, the league's weakest hitting team in the averages, belted out 15 runs and 19 hits in a 4-2 and 11-4 doubleheader sweep over Rochester. This kept them in first place, 31 percentage points ahead of Buffalo which also won a doubleheader from Montreal.

The Bisons had to go an extra inning in the seven-inning opener to win 8-7 and easily took the nightcap 9-2. Richmond bombed Columbus 9-1 in the other game. Montreal's Joe Altobelli hit his 11th homer. Grady Hamner had three RBI for Richmond and Deron Johnson added a triple and two singles as Columbus' Al Jackson lost.

Pitches No-Hitter
LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Nineteen-year-old Ronnie Schamp of St. Marys, Ohio, pitched a no-hit,

The distance of Howard's big blow was estimated by Joe Tucker, Pittsburgh sportscaster. He was parking his car when the ball came zooming over the wall. He stepped off the distance from the wall to where the ball hit. All told it was at least 550 feet.

The longest homer ever recorded was clubbed by New York's Mickey Mantle, a 565-foot shot at Washington on April 17, 1953. Babe Ruth is said to have hit one farther but that came in an exhibition game.

Last year Pittsburgh's Dick Stuart clouted a homer that traveled 540-550 feet, longest in Forbes Field history. It is believed that Howard's blast at least tied that mark.

Orioles Aren't Kidding After Nipping Chisox Again, 3-2

Tigers Gain 4th Straight Victory

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Pitching is getting to be a young man's game in the American League. And if you need a convincer take a squint at the Baltimore Orioles and Cleveland Indians, running 1-2 in the pennant chase.

Chuck Estrada, 22, a right-handed rookie, allowed only five hits for a 3-2 victory over 40-year-old Early Wynn at Chicago Wednesday that gave the Orioles a sweep of the two-game series. It was Steve Barber, a 21-year-old south-paw rookie, who plunked the White Sox out of first place with a seven-hitter Tuesday.

And Wednesday night, Jim Perry, an old hand at 24, pitched an 11-inning shutout for Cleveland as the Indians defeated Washington 1-0 and stayed within a half-game of Baltimore.

Detroit tied New York for fourth place, three games behind, by beating the Yankees 9-3. And Boston finally junked its losing slump at 10 games, defeating Kansas City 5-3.

In the National League, San Francisco gained a one-game edge with a 5-1 victory at Philadelphia while the Los Angeles Dodgers were handing Pittsburgh a third straight loss, 5-1. St. Louis beat Milwaukee 5-3 and Cincinnati whipped Chicago's Cubs 7-4.

Estrada (3-1) walked four but struck out five as the Birds won their fourth in a row.

Sherm Lollar drove in both White Sox runs, tying it 1-1 in the fourth with a double and deadlocking it at 2-1 in the seventh with a home run. Wynn (2-2) gave up 10 hits and struck out eight.

Tito Francona's two-out single broke up Perry's shutout duel with right-hander Bill Fischer (0-1), who had a four-hitter until the 11th. Perry (3-2) allowed eight hits, walked two and struck out eight.

Frank Bolling drove in four runs for the Tigers, who won their fourth in a row as Bolling, Charlie Maxwell and Red Wilson all slugged bases-loaded doubles. Frank Lary (4-3) won it. Ralph Terry (2-2) lost it.

Don Buddin's second double and a squeeze bunt by reliever Ted Bowsfield gave the Red Sox the deciding run in the eighth at Kansas City. Bill Monbouquette (4-3) was the winner while Don Larsen (0-4) lost his 10th in a row since last June.

Rain Timely In Reds' 7-4 Win Over Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — Wonder what Don Cardwell was thinking about Wednesday night after he had been knocked out of the box and his Chicago Cubs had gone into the fourth inning without getting a man to base?

Only 10 days ago Cardwell pitched a no-hitter. For 3 2-3 innings Wednesday night the Cubs hadn't come close to getting a hit off the Cincinnati Reds' Jim O'Toole.

Of course, the Cubs finally broke O'Toole's spell and even had him knocked out of the box with two out in the eighth when rain hit and left the Reds a 7-4 victory.

But for a time, it appeared O'Toole was on his way to one of his top pitching performances of the season. He wound up allowing eight hits but he fanned five and didn't walk a man.

The Cubs had two runs in and a man on base when the rain hit. Cal McLish had just been called in to relieve O'Toole.

Pre-game ceremonies marked the 25th anniversary of the first night game in the major leagues and but for that they probably would have gotten in a full game. The contest started about 40 minutes later than usual.

Paul Derringer, who pitched the Reds to victory in the first night game here on May 24, 1935, threw out the first ball Wednesday night and there also was fireworks just as at that opening night title.

In the game itself, an error by Ernie Banks helped Cincinnati get an unearned run in the first inning and the Reds shelled Cardwell out in the third.

Singles by Vada Pinson, Gus Bell and Frank Robinson brought one run. Ed Bailey hit a sacrifice fly for a second tally and Willie Jones doubled in another. That brought Dick Drott to Cardwell's rescue and Elio Chacon singled home a fourth run.

Drott and Mark Freeman were generous in the fifth. Freeman walked in two runs after Drott had yielded singled to Bailey and Chacon and a walk to O'Toole.

The first hit off O'Toole was a single by Ed Bouchee but the first damaging blow was a fifth inning home run by Frank Thomas. Banks' double, Thomas' single and a force out gave the Cubs another run in the seventh before they started teeing off on O'Toole in the eighth.

In that final frame they scored twice on doubles by Richie Ashburn and Jerry Kindall and a single by Bouchee.

The Reds are idle until starting a home series Friday night with Milwaukee.

Little League Scoreboard

Chester And Millirons Pick Up First Victories

The Chester Legion displayed some of the form that made them champions a year ago in blasting the Medics 12-5 in a National Division game while Millirons captured its first Little League tilt of the season with a 9-7 victory over Travelers.

The Chester Legion banged out 13 hits and took advantage of five Medics errors.

Bill Wright turned in the best night of the young season as he stroked a home run, double and single. The big innings for Chester were the first and sixth when the Legion nine pushed across four runs in each frame.

Rick Calhoun was the winning hurler but gave up 10 hits and struck out six. Wolfe was the losing pitcher.

A last-ditch rally by the Travelers fell short when the Hotelmen scored three runs in the sixth inning.

Millirons collected 14 hits. Leading the attack at the plate were Ensinger and Cunningham with three hits apiece.

Ibbs, the winning pitcher, gave up only six hits. Millirons big inning was a six-run third.

Golden Star outthit and battled Woodbine down to the wire before dropping an 8-7 decision to the Laundrymen in Pony League action Wednesday at Dopler Field.

Golden Star collected eight hits to Woodbine's four, but a six-run

Hamill Resigns Brilliant High Basketball Job

Carl A. Hamill, whose team won the Jefferson County Class A crown this year, has resigned as basketball coach of Brilliant High School.

Hamill, former Weir High athlete, came to Brilliant two years ago from Toronto where he served for one year as an assistant coach.

His prize pupil this year — big Jim Presley — was accorded All-Ohio honors for his feats in scoring points for the Blue Devils. Hamill has requested to be continued as a teacher of social studies and as baseball coach. A successor has not been named for the basketball post.

Fifty-seven sophomores will turn out for West Virginia football next fall.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Jimmy Daywalt of Indianapolis, who qualified the Bryant Heating Special for the 500-mile race at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, said Wednesday night he will not drive in the race Monday.

Speedway veterans could recall no previous resignation of a driver after qualification.

Daywalt announced his decision after getting only 137.5 miles an hour out of the car in carburetor tests. He said the Bryant crew had moved weight around so much in the car that its setup had been changed completely.

Ohio's Track And Field Records Show Big Change

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school kids are running faster and jumping and throwing greater distances than did their granddads of 50 years ago.

The first of the Buckeye State meets was held at Denison University's Beaver Field, May 23, 1908, and some of the winning performances then appear puny compared with what the boys will do this weekend.

For instance: In 1908 the pole vault was won with 8 feet 9 inches, and the state record is 13-9 1/2; the discus throw of 91 feet 2 inches was just a bit over half the 1959 mark of 174-8 1/2; and the opening high jump of 5-2 1/2 doesn't compare with the 6-4 which won last year.

Better equipment, better tracks, better coaching and better training have made much of the difference. Faded photographs of the olden, golden days show the youngsters wearing knee-length trunks instead of the abbreviated shorts of today; the oldsters also featured tennis-type shoes, not the featherweight needle-spiked ground-eaters of today.

Despite the onslaught of thousands of athletes, some ancient records still remain in the book. Oldest is the 6-3 1/4 high jump mark in Class A (formerly Class B) set in 1924 by Warren Anson of Prospect. The incomparable Jesse Owens set three standards in 1933 which still stand—09.6 for the 100, :20.8 for the 220, and 24-3 1/4 in the broad jump.

Some great one-man performances have been chalked up over the years. Owens, because of his record-breaking spree in 1933, is the most talked of. But there was Glenn Davis of Barberton, who single-handedly won the Class AA title for his school. As the Magies' lone entrant in 1954, he earned victories in the 220, the low hurdles and broad jump, and a fourth in the 100.

Owens, in 1931 as a sophomore, won the broad jump, was fourth in the 100 and second in the 220 for 12 of Cleveland East Tech's 12 1-10 points. The great Dave Albritton got the tenth as he banged into a 10-way tie for last in the high jump.

In 1932 and 1933 Owens won both dashes and the broad jump and anchored the winning 880-yard relay team. In all he won seven of nine individual starts and was on two winning relay teams, for a total of 51 personal points.

In Class A, no one has come close to the four-year performance of John Saunders of Glendale from 1935 through 1938. John won the 100-yard dash and 120-yard hurdles all four years, took the 220-yard low hurdles twice, along with a second and third, won the broad jump once and was fourth once—for a four-year total of 75 points.

As a senior he broke the high hurdles record for the fourth straight year, tied the 100-yard dash mark, and broke the low hurdles and broad jump records. His four records went for naught, as his 24 points were good for only a third-place tie. But Glendale won the crown in 1935 when John's brother Joe won the 220 and the low hurdles, and John took the 100 dash and high hurdles and finished second to Joe in the lows for a family total of 31 1/2 points, far ahead of the nearest foe.

Moore Scores TKO In Tenth Over German

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Old Archie Moore (437) still has the punch, but the punch must go, before he defends his light-heavyweight title against Erich Schoppner of Germany next July 18.

Moore, carrying a billowy 206½ pounds, Wednesday night scored a tenth-round technical knockout over Willi Besmanoff of Milwaukee in a nationally televised heavyweight bout in the Indiana State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The 175-pound king from San Diego, Calif., was dropped to one knee by a right-hand blast from Besmanoff in the second round.

Moore went to work, dropped Besmanoff for a mandatory eight-count in the fifth and then really wrecked the plucky German with a right which caught Besmanoff flush on the back and decked him near the end of the ninth.

Besmanoff's nose was bleeding profusely over everybody in the ring in the 10th round, and Referee Frank Gilmer, chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission, called it quits at 1:32.

Promoter Jack Fagazy of New York disclosed after the bout that Moore would defend his 175-pound crown against Schoppner on July 18, a Monday night. The site, he said, would be announced within a few days.

All three officials had Moore well ahead through nine rounds. Gilmer's vote was 43-37, while judges Tony Coppi and Kelse Mc Clure had Archie in front, 43-38, the same as the AP card.

Plans Underway For Minor Loop In Wellsville

Plans for inaugurating a Minor Little League in Wellsville were started at a meeting of a group of parents Wednesday night at Daw Junior High School.

Virgil Kornbau was named acting president. Other temporary officers include Richard Payne, vice president; Mrs. Joann Kornbau, secretary; Bert Mercer, treasurer, and Mrs. Ruth Campbell, publicity.

Only 17 of the 60 youths who tried out for Little League were accepted. The group hopes to get the support of the parents and form another league so all boys interested can play.

Kornbau said managers will be needed. A playing field has been secured below 20th St. but it will have to be cleaned and marked. Volunteers will be needed to do the work.

The parents will hold another meeting June 1 following the annual Little League preview.

Romack First To Enter LPGA Event At Warren

WARREN — Platinum-haired Barbara Gail Romack of Sacramento, California today became the first to sign for the $16,000 Youngstown Kitchens Invitational Golf Tournament at Warren's Trumbull Country Club, July 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10th.

Tournament Chairman, Ken Jones said that Miss Romack, a 28-year-old blue-eyed blond, is expected to compete against a field of some 30 professional and 30 amateur golfing ladies.

The event, first major tournament to be held at the Trumbull course, is co-sponsored by the Ladies Professional Golf Association.

Miss Romack, familiarly known as the "Lil' Tiger", has a brilliant record. During her amateur career she won the 1954 U. S. title, was an outstanding member of three Curtis Cup teams, won the North-South in 1952, the Canadian Amateur in 1953, and the Florida East Coast and California State championships in 1958.

She failed to set the nation's golf courses on fire last year but from the moment she turned professional on November 18, 1958, she served notice that she would be tough to reckon with among the top pro golf players in the game.

In her first season on the tour, she finished fourth in Lake Worth Open with a score of 295. That was her best finish of the year and was her lowest 72-hole medal score.

Barbara started playing golf at the age of 12, continued to master her game while studying business and journalism at Sacramento College.

Giants Hitting Is Now Blending With Pitching

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — San Francisco's steady, effective pitching has shot the Giants into a one-game lead in the National League, but their big hitting guns are booming again and they're moving to pad the lead over Pittsburgh.

"The big guns have tied into a couple and we might be off now," Manager Bill Rigney said Wednesday night after the Giants defeated Philadelphia 5-1, getting 12 hits to back Mike McCormick's five-hit job.

The victory, No. 6 against only two defeats for the 21-year-old McCormick, hoisted the Giants into a full game lead as Pittsburgh lost 5-1 to Los Angeles.

"If we can keep going, we'll be in good shape," Rigney said. "Our starting pitchers have been going very good and we've bounced back and picked up a little in our hitting."

On the current road trip the Giants are 4-4, having taken two in a row from the Phillies. Sad Sam Jones blanked the Phillies 4-0 Tuesday night with a four-hit whitewash job.

Willie Kirkland, almost the forgotten slugger among the Giants, was the hitting star Wednesday night, belting his seventh homer — his first since May 17 — and getting a double and single to drive in three runs. He hiked his average from .281 to .297.

Willie McCovey also got two singles, pushing his average from .260 to .269.

Redskin Cagers Face Kentucky And Miami

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—A two-game trip to the South for contests with Kentucky and Miami of Florida will be included on the 1960-61 basketball schedule announced by Ohio's Miami University.

Athletic Director John Brickels said the Redskins would play Kentucky at Lexington Jan. 2 and Miami of Florida at Miami Beach on Jan. 4.

Miami will play 24 games during the season. There will be the usual contests with Mid-American Conference foes plus home-and-away tilts with Dayton and Xavier and single games with Heidelberg, Ashland, Cincinnati, DePaul, Pittsburgh and Eastern Kentucky.

Cox Hits AAU Snag Over Expense Money

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Cox, suspended by the Lake Erie Amateur Athletic Union, cannot play in the National Industrial Basketball League until he answers charges of taking expense money from two different teams, says John Nagy, AAU secretary.

Cox has been charged with taking expense money from both the Cleveland Pipers and the Akron Wingfoots for trips to the Olympic trials. It was reported that Cox was supposed to repay the Pipers when reimbursed by Akron, but failed to do so. Cox, who recently signed with the Wingfoots, was suspended indefinitely when he failed to answer the charges before the AAU group.

Klapak Eyes First Win In Canfield '200

Veteran Mike Klapak of Warren will be entered in the annual Canfield Memorial Day 100-mile new car race for the 11th straight year next Monday afternoon.

But in the 10-year history of the 200-mile grind, which is staged over Canfield's half-mile track Klapak has never won the classic.

Mike will bring in a 1959 Ford as he hopes to break the jinx. Klapak has won the Langhorne 150-mile two years in a row and was national sportsman stock car racing champion for five successive years, yet he has never won the big "Canfield 200".

Klapak came closest last year when he finished second behind Don White of Keokuk, Iowa. He has been third two times. This time Mike says he is going to do it.

However, he will find the stiffest competition in the nation as some 50 new car drivers are expected to be on hand for the big Memorial Day event.

It will be the biggest star-studded lineup ever seen in this area. White will be back, this time in a 1960 Ford. He is a two-time ICMA champion, before moving over to the MARC Assn.

The victor two years ago, Les Snow of Bloomington, will be back with a 1960 Pontiac and three-time MARC champion Iggy Katona of Lambertville, Mich., will be in the lineup with a 1960 Ford.

Also behind the wheel of a 1960 Ford will be defending MARC titleholder Nelson Stacey of Cincinnati. It will be Stacey's third 100-mile here and his best showing was in 1957 when he placed second.

Of the big entry list nearly half will be 1960 models. Gates will open at 10:30 a. m. Monday. Drivers will begin qualifying for the 40 eligible spots at noon and the long grind begins promptly at 2:30 p. m.

There will be racing at Canfield Speedway Saturday night, too, and the top drivers in the Midwest will again be on hand. This includes Dean Mast of Sugar Creek, Ohio, Bob James and Norm Calhoun of Akron, Jim Florian of Cleveland, former midget pilot Bob Milley of Kent and many others. Race time will be 8:30 p. m.

Golf Tourney Opens Today At Speedway

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The pro golfers themselves will be off to the races in an expected par-busting rodeo in the $50,000 Festival Open tournament starting at the Speedway Golf Club today.

Cracked Jack Burke, one of the better known pros in a field of 150: "A 270 (14 under par) will win this thing, four rounds like 66-67-68-67."

Probably the only thing that will prevent the potent field from ripping par completely to shreds is a tall stand of thick grass on the fairways and greens of the 35-36-71 par layout which dips and ducks 6,605 yards in and out of the Speedway race track.

Meet sponsors promised to snip the growth before the opening round of the 72-hole medal play meet which carries a top prize of $9,000.

On the first tour of the course, more than a score of pros have shot sub-70 rounds, including a 66 by Mike Souchak in Tuesday's pro-am celebrity round.

Wednesday, National Open champion Billy Casper and Joe Campbell, former Purdue athletic star who probably knows this course better than any entry, each shot 67 practice rounds. Doug Ford and Stan Leonard each fired 68's.

The Festival Open was inaugurated this year as a sideshow to the Memorial Day 500-mile auto race Monday. The Speedway course is probably the only layout in the world cut in half by a race track.

U. S. Olympic Coach Sees Weakness In Distance Men

The following story was written exclusively for The Associated Press by Larry Snyder, Ohio State and Olympic track coach, on America's prospects in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

By LARRY SNYDER

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—America's outlook in the distance races at the 1960 Olympics is a gloomy one.

America has won four of the last six 400-meter races, but prospects in Rome are not too brilliant. Three West Indians took the top medals in the 1959-Pan-American Games. All three are attending college in the United States, but they'll represent their home lands in the Olympics.

Top man of this small group of greats is George Kerr, the 400 and 800-meter specialist from U. of Illinois and Jamaica. He won the 400-meter, anchored the 1,600-meter relay, and finished second to Tom Murphy of New York in the 800-meter in the Pan-Am Games.

Our representatives will be named in the July 1-2 tryouts at Palo Alto, Calif., but they must match the standards of 47.3 for the 400, and 1:49.2 for the 800.

Dave Mills of Purdue, Jack Yermon of California, Eddie Southern of Austin, Tex., and Delos Dods of Kansas were our best a year ago in the 400-meter. Glenn Davis of Columbus, who holds the quarter-mile record of 45.7, is a threat in both the 400-meter run and hurdles.

In the 800-meter, only Murphy was listed in the top 10 internationally last year. In April Ernie Cunliff of Stanford ran a brilliant 1:47.3, and later qualified in the mile. Bob Tague of Kansas caught Kerr from 10 yards back in the Drake Relays, and a week later eight half-milers in California were under 1:51.

Top USA milers include Jim Grelle of Portland, Ore.; Ed Moran of James City, Pa.; Archie San Romani Jr., of Wichita, Kan.; Jim Bowers of Illinois, and Don Bowden. Others yet to reach their peak may work into the picture. The steeplechase—3,000 meters of it—is not one of our specialties. Horace Ashenfelter of Penn State upset the Russian world in 1952 with his great victory, but this is Russia's event since it has five men in the top 10 ranking.

Phil Coleman of Champaign, Ill., and Deacon Jones of Coffeyville, Kan., have been our best for several years.

By no stretch of the imagination can the 5,000 and 10,000-meter races, or the marathon, be considered our domain.

The Olympic standard in the 10,000 meter is lower than our national record. Only Bill Dellinger of Oxnard, Calif., and Max Truex of Warsaw, Ind., have bettered the 5,000-meter standard.

Others rated among our top distance men are Lew Stieglitz of Hartford, Conn.; Bob Soth of Long Beach, Calif.; Miles Eisenman of Tahachapi, Calif.; Bud Edelen of Minneapolis, Jim Beatty of North Carolina, and Paul Whiteley of Emporia, Kan.

We haven't scored an Olympic marathon point in recent years.

John Kelley of Groton, Conn., Alex Breckenridge of the Marine Corps and Gordon McKenzie of New York will be our representatives.

Ken Germann and John Wellington, both former Columbia athletes, are on the Lion football coach staff. Germann has the freshmen and Wellington is his assistant.

Yesterday's Stars

Pitching — Jim Perry, Indians, gave up eight singles in an 11-inning shutout, walking two and striking out eight for 1-0 victory over the Senators.

Hitting—Willie Kirkland, Giants, had three hits and drove in three runs, two with a homer, in 5-1 victory over the Phillies.

Eighty-seven candidates made up the West Virginia varsity spring football roster.

Patience Needed To Help Child Learn

Immeasurable is the possibility of gains in book learning and in companionship with his parents by the school child at home, if his parents find ideal ways of helping him with his lessons. Most parents have enough education to achieve this noble objective, especially while the child is in the elementary grades. Doing other parents who are doing well at this up to high school, could go on learning companionably with the child as he advances. The secret of success, as a rule, is in the parent's ability to imagine himself in the child's place, to master his own emotions and ways of acting, and to win the child's esteem and companionship.

HAVING READ daily to the child, from the time he was two or three, and continuing to do so while this child is in the early grades, the parent should enjoy hearing the child read when he wants to show how well he can. If the child then can feel as comfortable as when listening to the parent reading to him, great will be his gain from the help. So may it be as he learns to spell some words or do some sums in arithmetic. Such help might be so effective that this child will advance well up through his school years, without once hearing from his parents or teacher that he study harder.

IT'S WHEN LOW grades on the report card or other information from school induces a parent to command the child, "Go get your book and do your homework with me," that problems may occasionally arise. It may be necessary, of course, to require the child, in the third or ninth grade, to go at his homework at a regular period. But the parent reveals his skill and genius from there on. All over America tonight are tragic scenes in which the parent, helping the child with his homework, loses his or her temper, raises the voice and charges the child with being lazy or not paying attention. If the child makes a mistake, is corrected and repeats the error, then the angry parent may shriek at him or utter a monologue criticizing the teacher at school. IF YOU HELP your child with his lessons, you will need to be very calm and patient. The moment you feel stirrings inside and hear your voice rising, you need to walk away from the child. If you find that you can't control yourself, you had better give up trying to help him, hoping he will go it alone. Or, more wisely, secure a stranger who can really help him. My bulletins, "Helping Child with Lessons at Home" and "Parents and the Child's Homework," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Hawaiians Flee Following Sudden Tidal Wave Alert

HONOLULU (AP) — A sudden tidal wave alert sent Hawaiians to high ground for more than two anxious hours Wednesday and residents of Hilo, already shattered by Monday's giant waves, almost panicked.

But all was calm by midafternoon when a wave expected by way of Christmas Island failed to materialize. Christmas Island, 1,000 miles south of the Hawaiian chain, is on the path from the tremor-tormented Chilean coast.

Residents of Hilo, still searching for bodies in the debris from Monday's disastrous wave, fled low areas by foot, auto and any other available transportation.

Residents returned to their homes after the all clear.

In Hilo they returned to the task of assessing their Monday toll: 45 dead, 53 injured and at least 15 missing.

A brief alert was signaled on the California coast Wednesday coincident with the one in Hawaii but no tidal wave developed.

4-H News

"My Favorite Pastime" was roll call response of members of the Golden Needles 4-H Club when they met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Falconer of Wellsville R. D. 1.

For devotions, Sara Wellington read Ps. 100 and the Lord's Prayer and pledge of allegiance were given by the group. Nancy Wellington, president, conducted business and plans were made to serve the Woman's Association mother-daughter dinner June 22 at the Oak Ridge Presbyterian Church.

Clara and Evelyn Boyd gave a demonstration on "The Proper Clothing to Wear to School." A wiener roast was held at the close of the meeting with refreshment committee members serving as hostesses. A safety slogan and appropriate picture are to be brought to the meeting June 13 at the Falconer home.

Some 24 members, 2 advisors and 2 guests attended the meeting of the Busy Gals and Pals 4-H Club Tuesday evening at the Oak Grove School.

Business was conducted by Chloe Plate, president. First aid lessons were given by Mrs. Mary Louise Wolf. The group held a wiener roast later at the home of Peggy Wolf.

Next meeting will be June 14 at the home of Greg Shultz, near Negley.

Lawyers Quitting Vice-Gambling Probe Temporary

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The resignations of two Canton lawyers from the special vice-gambling investigation squad here are only temporary, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy indicated Wednesday night.

Both Walter H. Allman and Charles K. Correll, the attorneys who resigned, reaffirmed that they wanted the resignations to be permanent.

However, McElroy said that he had been "led to believe" that the resignations were due only to the "press of their personal law practices." We trust that they soon may rejoin the investigation, perhaps at the conclusion of the trials which start next week.

Asked how long the investigation would continue, McElroy said, "I don't know at this time. That is up to the governor."

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle ordered the attorney general to determine the need for the investigation last August, about two months after a local clean-up by off-duty police had begun in Massillon.

Lions Club At Lisbon Will Sponsor 2 Events

LISBON — The Lions Club will sponsor a dance and circus as fund-raising events for projects, according to plans made at a meeting Wednesday night at the club cabin at Willow Grove Park.

A public dance will be held Saturday, June 18, at the high school auditorium for the school band's raincoat fund and the Beers-Barnes Circus will perform July 4 at the fairgrounds.

11 Men, 5 Women Are Arrested In Narcotics Probe

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three months of investigation resulted in the arrest here Wednesday of 11 men and 5 women described by police as known users of narcotics or associates of known users.

Police said a check of drug store records produced names of persons who have been buying paregoric steadily, some of them as much as eight ounces a day. Purchasers of paregoric must give their names and addresses.

Lt. Carl Lind of the police vice squad said addicts boil the paregoric down to get the opium base. He said addicts are using that because they can't get heroin.

Thirteen of those arrested were charged with violation of the state's narcotics law by buying more than two ounces of paregoric in one day. They will be arraigned in Police Court Friday.

The other three were ordered held for further investigation.

Vienna Paper Reports Former Nazi Abducted

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Vienna's independent Kronenzeitung reported under a banner headline today that "(Adolf) Eichmann was abducted from Argentina in an Israeli U-boat."

The arrest of Eichmann, wanted in connection with the extermination of European Jews in the Nazi days, was reported in Jerusalem Monday by Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion. He did not specify where Eichmann had been taken into custody.

As Benjamin Franklin SAID:

"NOTHING SO POPULAR AS GOODNESS"

... and nothing will be more popular with your family or friends than Meringue Nests made with FRANKLIN SUGAR

MERINGUE NESTS

4 egg whites • ¼ teaspoon salt • ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar, scant • 1½ cups Franklin Instant Superfine Sugar • ¼ teaspoon almond or vanilla extract

Beat egg whites slightly; add salt and cream of tartar and beat until frothy. Adding 2 tablespoons of sugar at a time, beat whites until sugar is used and whites are very stiff. Add extract. Cover cookie sheets with buttered brown paper. Make meringue nests by spooning large amount of meringue onto paper and shaping nest with 2 tablespoons. Or shape nests by putting meringue through cookie press or pastry bag. Place in very slow oven, 250°F., 1 hour. At end of time, turn oven off and allow meringues to stand until oven is room temperature. Remove and store in dry place until time to be served. Fill with sweetened fruit such as strawberries, peaches, or with ice cream. Yield: 6 meringues.

'Involuntary Confessions'

Hargrove's Defense Hits Recorded Police Quizzing

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The recorded police interrogation of Floyd E. Hargrove, who is on trial here for first-degree murder in the slaying of Charles R. Clark of Mentor, shows nothing more than "involuntary confessions given under duress," defense attorneys argue.

The jury of 11 men and one woman heard part of the tape recordings Wednesday and were scheduled to listen to them again today.

Defense attorney Louis A. Turi Jr. told newsmen that Hargrove was mentally and physically unfit to discuss anything when the recordings were made Jan. 2, shortly after his arrest in Toledo, where his mother was living.

"You could tell by his voice that he was groggy from lack of sleep and constant haranguing," Turi said. In that condition, Turi added, the former delivery-truck driver would have confessed to anything.

The recordings indicated that

Hargrove admitted buying a rifle in Chardon Dec. 23, the day before the sniper slaying. Hargrove also admitted test-firing the weapon into a utility pole.

The interrogators repeatedly tried to learn what Hargrove did with the rifle he said he bought. "I told you I did it. I'll confess to killing him, but I don't know where the gun is," the accused said at one point, according to the tape.

At another point, when Hargrove was asked whom he was "covering up" for, he answered: "No one would believe my story. I couldn't believe it myself, if I were on the jury. I'd send me to the electric chair. You would laugh if I told you the truth."

Lake County Sheriff William B. Evans testified the tapes were recorded in the county jail in the presence of Coroner Richard McBurney, Mentor Police Chief Frank D. Hathy, assistant prosecutors Edward Redmond and John F. Clair Jr. and Evans.

Jury Finds Four Guilty Of Murder In Columbus Trial

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following an extraordinary deliberation session, a common pleas jury at 2 a.m. today found four Columbus men guilty of second-degree murder.

The jury was in session almost 11 hours before returning the verdict in the New Year's Day death of Mrs. Mary Anthony, 17.

Their decision was announced to Franklin County Common Pleas Judge Robert E. Leach. No sentencing date was set pending a motion by the defense for a new trial.

The nude body of Mrs. Anthony, a Negro, was found along a county road northwest of the city. Officials testified she died of a beating and cold exhaustion.

The four men, white, are William Olney, 21, James Greer, 22, Gary H. Hutt, 21, and Carl Parsons, 19. The victim had been in their car.

The defense claimed that Mrs. Anthony willingly entered the men's car, did not resist when they picked her up, and appeared to be intoxicated. Counsel said the men did not intend or try to kill her.

No Cause For Alarm, Tenant Just Sleeping

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Firemen made a run to a rooming house Wednesday.

A woman living there said another tenant had entered the bathroom several hours before and never came out.

A fireman forced open the bathroom and found James Mabres, 40, sleeping there peacefully.

May New Editor Of Ashland Paper

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP)—The appointment of Ralph M. May, 33, as editor of the Ashland Times-Gazette was announced Wednesday by publishers of the daily newspaper. He has been news editor of the Ravenna Record-Courier for the last six years.

May succeeds Patrick Phelan, editor since last December, who announced his resignation effective June 6. Phelan plans to take a position with the Columbus Citizen-Journal.

May was associated with the Xenia Daily Gazette for four years before going to Ravenna in 1955. He attended Ohio State University and served 18 months in the U.S. Air Force.

Phelan was city editor of the Columbus Citizen before its merger with the Ohio State Journal last November. He also was a newscaster for Columbus station WTVN-TV.

Man At His Murder Trial Writes Poetry

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Charles Ross, charged with beating a man to death, writes poetry at his murder trial.

His latest lines were titled "Not Guilty." The poem concludes with these words to the jury: "I'm certain you'll agree."

"I've had enough upsets of late. Without your trying to cremate 'A guy that's 'not guilty'."

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I've never written a letter to a newspaper or to a magazine in my life but after reading your column today (about parents being paid back for giving their children a college education) I just had to write to you.

In the past two years we have seen two sons and a daughter get college diplomas. They all worked part time and we paid the rest.

In the last six years Dad and I have had no vacations. Our car is just about ready for the junk heap. The furniture in our house is falling apart. But who cares? None of this means a thing compared to knowing that our children are given a first-class education.

Pay us back? They've paid us back — a thousand times, by being the kind of people we want them to be. We have two other children who will enter college soon. God willing, we'll see them through, too. — PROUD OF OUR KIDS.

Heartbroken Parents

Dear Ann: The letter on whether or not children owe their parents for a college education brought back some painful memories.

Our son always went with the rich kids in school, although we had very little. My husband owned a small tailor shop and I helped him with the sewing at night.

When our son told us he wanted to go to a big Eastern school and it would cost us $3,000 a year it sounded like a million. He said he couldn't work his way through because it was a hard school and he needed all his time and energy for studying.

Well, Pa and I scraped together our savings, we made a loan, I took in two roomers and our son got his college education. I saved in a secret account for our train fare so when he was graduated we could see him get his diploma. But we never made that trip. Do you know why? He never invited us.

Pa was heartbroken but he never said anything. Along about August I asked our son why and he said, "You would have felt out of place with all those swells."

Guides Get Lost

ESTES PARK, Colo. (AP)—Thirty-eight sixth graders went on a hike accompanied by three guides. Two guides got lost. The party leader and the youngsters finally found them on a forest road unable to determine which direction to go.

He married a fancy girl he met in the East and we don't see them very often although they live right in this town. Maybe we raised him wrong but we did the best we could. I hope he does better with his son than we did with ours. — UNHAPPY PARENTS.

A Professor Speaks

Dear Ann: I'm a professor in a Midwestern college and was deeply interested in the column which raised the question of whether children "owe" their parents for sacrifices made to send them to college.

For almost 20 years I've watched students come and go. Do you know who, almost without exception, are the outstanding students? Those who are on partial or complete scholarships and must work to stay in school. They seem to have a better comprehension of what college education means and are willing to make sacrifices to get it.

Do you know who the poorest students are — the ones who wash out and barely make it by the skin of their teeth?

The students whose parents send them with swanky clothes, hi-fi machines, electric typewriters, automobiles and lots of spending money. These students don't have to do anything but concentrate on their work but they don't. They are too busy with their hi-fis, automobiles and spending money. — THE OWL.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Children's Home Asks For Clothing

EAST PALESTINE — An appeal for clothing for young people from 2 to 17 at the County children's receiving home was made by Edward Patzsch, home supervisor, at a meeting of the Democratic Women's Club Tuesday night.

Patzsch said some 46 children have been processed through the Key's Memorial Home. He stressed the young people are not juvenile delinquents but victims of broken homes.

He said clothing is needed for both boys and girls, along with games. He said 1,226 meals have been served this month and 390 bedtime snacks.

"We welcome the unwanted," he said.

The women's group made plans for the annual picnic June 22 at City Park at which county office holders and workers along with candidates will be guests.

Mrs. Kay Blackburn of Columbiana, county party chairwoman, reported on the recent national Democratic women's convention at Washington.

County Council Gives Points On Safe Use Of Power Mower

LISBON—The Columbiana County Health and Safety Council has issued a list of hints on safe operation of power mowers, as prepared by W. E. Stuckey, who said practically all accidents with the machines are the result of human error. He is extension specialist in safety at Ohio State University.

If the mower is kept in good mechanical condition and the operator uses it wisely, the chances of an accident are very slight.

There are two types of mowers on the market — the reel and rotary. A study conducted by the Department of Health in Georgia found that more than nine-tenths of the accidents involved the rotary mower.

The Lawn Mower Institute, Inc., and agriculture engineers who have studied these machines, make several suggestions for safe operation.

Study the instruction manual that comes with the mower. This manual gives basic information on safety and maintenance.

Inspect the lawn for stones, wire and other debris before starting to mow. The top speed of some rotary mower blades reach 100 to 125 miles-per-hour. The blade rotates between 2,000 and 3,600 rpm, depending on the length of the blade and the power. It this blade picks up a stone, nail or similar object it can throw it with sufficient force to kill. For this reason, it is important to keep all persons away from the opening where the grass is ejected.

Train all operators before using. This includes safe starting. The operator should stand firmly and be sure the mower will not be moved over the foot as the starter rope is pulled. Learn to disengage the clutch and stop the machine quickly in case of emergency occurs.

Always stop the motor when the operator is called away or leaves the job temporarily. An unattended running mower, plus one small child sometimes equal disaster.

Keep all small children and pets away from the machine. They could stumble or fall into the mower path or the mower itself and become another casualty.

Always be sure of the footing especially when mowing inclines. It is very easy to pull the mower back over the foot unless one is mind on the job. The steeper the incline, the more care is required. On an electric mower, where the handle can be reversed, be sure the mower has stopped moving before taking a position to reverse direction. Again, in this situation the mower could roll over one's foot.

Always stop the motor when unclogging, adjusting or oiling. As an added precaution, be sure to disconnect the spark plug wire when working on the underside of the mower. On an electric mower, be sure to allow sufficient time for the blade to stop after cutting the power. Tip the mower over by means of the handle. Never reach under the deck. Always keep hands, feet and clothing away from moving parts.

Keep fuel stored in a red can plainly marked. The can should be spill-proof in case it is bumped and upset. Storing gasoline in a glass jug is asking for a fire. In Ohio, the state fire marshal's regulation prohibits the sale or purchase of any petroleum liquid in glass containers, except in original sealed containers of not more than one quart capacity.

Repair cut or frayed electric cord with rubber cord connectors. Splicing is not recommended from the standpoint of efficiency or safety.

Fuse the circuit with a 15-amp fuse. If the fuse blows when the motor starts, use a time-delay plug fuse. This will allow for a slight starting overload.

Permit only competent operators to use the mower. Before allowing a child to mow, be sure he is physically able to handle the machine. Then, too, be sure he is mentally capable to instantly make the right decision in case something goes wrong.

He Put Foot In It When He Removed Hat

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—David Edwards, 23, politely removed his hat while being questioned by Tucson police officers.

A partially smoked marijuana cigarette rolled out of the hat band. Edwards was booked on suspicion of illegal possession of marijuana.

Living Costs Hit New High

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose four-tenths of one per cent in April to another record high. The rise was the largest for any month since last June. In reporting the increase, the Labor Department said it was largely due to a rise in food prices. Poor spring growing conditions were a factor in the upward movement of food costs. The department consumers price index rose to 126.2 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. This is 1.9 per cent higher than a year earlier. Nearly a million workers in the auto, farm equipment and related parts industries will get a 2-cent-an-hour pay raise because of the April living cost rise. Their union contracts provide for adjustments based on the consumers price index. An adjustment of about one-cent an hour will go to an additional 150,000 workers, most of them employed by the Westinghouse Electric Manufacturing Co. Similar pay raises may be due to an additional 100,000 workers, mostly in aircraft plants. Their situation is uncertain because their labor contracts providing for adjustments have either expired or will soon do so. Arnold Chase, Labor Department price chief, said the sizable living cost rise in April is not viewed as the beginning of a strong upward trend in consumers prices. Chase said the April increase was particularly influenced by price boosts for fresh meats and vegetables. He said the food price increase was due to supply shortages brought about by adverse weather during the past few months. Foods as a whole rose by 1½ per cent between March and April. Prices rose for most meats, particularly pork; fresh fruits, eggs, and for potatoes and tomatoes. Chase said that because of the unusually large increase in food prices in April, he expected little change in the over-all living cost index in May. But he forecasted probably additional living cost increases — due to higher food prices — the remainder of the summer. The only significant price decline in April was for used cars which the Labor Department said are meeting severe competition from new compact cars. Continuing heavy sales of new cars kept prices up for the new models. Prices of clothing changed very little in April. And there was no change in costs of public transportation, repairs and home maintenance, or for electricity. The Labor Department reported that the purchasing power of factory workers dropped by 1½ per cent from March to April — the fourth straight monthly decline. Spendable earnings—that is net pay checks after tax deductions—dropped by about 85 cents to $80.20 a week for the factory worker heading a family of four. The decline resulted from shorter hours of work; also the Good Friday holiday fell during the April survey week.

Gas Station Operator Lucky That He Forgot

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Tucson service station operator Julius Smith says he seldom forgets anything, but recently left his glasses in the office after locking up for the night. For Smith it was a lucky break. He returned to the station to get his glasses, found the office filled with smoke and called the fire department. Firemen snuffed out the blaze which started when a cigarette fell from an ash tray and landed on a grease rag.

Cool Decision
